Foreigners Act, 1946

An Act to confer upon the 2[Government] of certain powers in respect of foreigners.

WHEREAS it is expedient to provide for the exercise by the 2[Government] of certain powers in respect of the entry of foreigners into 2[Bangladesh], their presence therein and their departure therefrom;

It is hereby enacted as follows;-

1. Short title and extent.-

(1)This Act may be called the Foreigners Act, 1946.

(2)It extends to the whole of 2[Bangladesh]

2. Definitions.

In this Act.-

(a)“foreigner” means a person who is not a citizen of 2[Bangladesh;]

(b)“prescribed” means prescribed by orders made under this Act;

(c)“specified” means specified by direction of a prescribed authority.

(1)The 3[Government] may by order make provisions, either generally or with respect to all foreigners or with respect to all foreigners or with respect to any particular foreigner or any prescribed class or description of foreigner, for prohibiting, regulating or restricting the entry foreigners into 3[Bangladesh] or their departure therefrom on their presence or continued presence therein.

(2)In particular and without prejudice to the generality of the foregoing power, orders made under this section may provide that the foreigner-

(a)shall not enter 3[Bangladesh], or shall enter 3[Bangladesh] only at such times and by such route and at such port or place and subject to the observance of such conditions on arrival as may be prescribed;

(b)shall not depart from 4[Bangladesh], or shall depart only at such times and by such route and from such port or place and subject to the observance of such conditions on departure as may be prescribed;

(c)shall not remain in 4[Bangladesh] or in any prescribed area therein;

(d)shall remove himself to, and remain in, such area in 4[Bangladesh] as may be prescribed;

(e)shall comply with such conditions as may be prescribed or specified-

(i)requiring him to reside in a particular place;

(ii)imposing any restrictions on his movements;

(iii)requiring him to furnish such proof of his identity and to report such particulars to such authority in such manner and at such time and place as may be prescribed or specified;

(iv)requiring him to allow his photograph and finger impressions to be taken and to furnish specimens and his handwriting and signature to such authority and at such time and place as may be prescribed or specified;

(v)requiring him to submit himself to such medical examination by such authority and at such time and place as may be prescribed or specified;

(vi)prohibiting him from association with persons of a prescribed or specified description;

(vii) prohibiting him from engaging in activities of a prescribed or specified description;

(viii) prohibiting him from using or possessing prescribed or specified articles;

(ix)otherwise regulating his conduct in any such particulars as may be prescribed or specified;

(f)shall enter into a bond with or without sureties for the due observance of, or as an alternative to the enforcement of, any or all prescribed or specified restrictions or condition;

5[(g)shall be arrested and, in the interest of the security of 6[Bangladesh,] detained or confined;]

7[Provided that a person shall not be detained for a period exceeding six months unless an Advisory Board consisting of three persons appointed by the Government, of whom two shall be persons who are or have been, or are qualified to be appointed as, Judges of the Supreme Court and the other shall be a person who is a senior officer in the service of the Republic, has, after affording him an opportunity of being heard in person, reported before the expiration of the said period of six months that there is, in its opinion, sufficient cause for such detention.]

(3)An order made under sub-section (2) may make provision for such incidental and supplementary matters as may, in the opinion of the 12[Government;] be expedient or necessary for giving effect to the provisions of this Act.

(1)Any foreigner (hereinafter referred to as an internee) in respect of whom there is in force any order made under clause (g) of sub-section (2) of section 3, directing that he be detained or confined, shall be detained or confined in such place and manner and subject to such conditions as to maintenance, discipline and the punishment of offences and breaches of discipline as the 14[Government] may from time to time determine.15.

(2)Any foreigner (hereinafter referred to as on parole) in respect of whom there is in force an order made under clause (e) of sub-section (2) of section 3 requiring him to reside at a place set apart for the residence under supervision of a number of foreigners, shall while residing therein be subject to such conditions as to maintenance, discipline and the punishment of offences and breaches of discipline as the 14 [Government] may from time to time by order determine.

(3)No person shall-

(a)Knowingly assist an internee or a person or parole to escape from custody or the place set apart for his residence, or knowingly harbour an escaped internee or person on parole, or

(b)give an escaped internee or a person on parole any assistance with intent thereby to prevent, hinder or interfere with the apprehension of the internee or the person on parole.

(4)The 16[Government] may by order17 provide for regulating access to, and the conduct of persons in, places in 16[Bangladesh] where internees or persons on parole are detained or restricted, as the case may be, and for prohibiting or regulating the despatch or conveyance from outside such places to or for internees or persons on parole therein of such articles as may be prescribed.

5. Change of name.

(1)No foreigner who was in 16[Bangladesh] on the date on which this Act came into force shall, while in 17a[Bangladesh]after that date, assume or use or purport to assume or use for any purpose any name other than that by which he was ordinarily known immediately before the said date.

(2)Where, after the date on which this Act came into force, any foreigner carries on or purports to carry on (whether alone or in association with any other person) any trade or business under any name or style, other than that under which that trade or business was being carried on immediately before the said date, he shall, for the purposes of sub-section (1), be deemed to be using a name other than that by which he was ordinarily known immediately before the said date.

(3)In relation to any foreigner who, not having been in 18[Bangladesh] on the date on which this Act came into force, thereafter enters 18[Bangladesh], sub-section (1) and (2) shall have effect as if for any reference in those sub-sections to the date on which this Act came into force there was substituted a reference to the date on which he first enters 18[Bangladesh] thereafter.

(4)For the purpose of this section-

(a)the expression "name" includes a surname, and

(b)a name shall be deemed to be changed if the spelling thereof is altered.

(5)Nothing in this section shall apply to the assumption or use-

- (a) of any name in pursuance of a 19 permission granted by the 18[Government]; or
- (b) by any married woman, of her husband's name.

6. Obligations of masters of vessels, etc.

(1) The master of any vessel landing or embarking at a port in 20[Bangladesh], passengers coming to or going from that port by sea and the pilot of any aircraft landing or embarking at any place in 20[Bangladesh], passengers coming to or going from that place by air, shall furnish to such person and in such manner as may be prescribed a return giving the prescribed particulars with respect to any passengers or members of the crew, who are foreigners.

(2) Any district Magistrate and 21 any Superintendent of police may, for any purpose connected with the enforcement of this Act or any order made thereunder, require the master of any such vessel or that pilot of any such aircraft to furnish such information as may be prescribed in respect of passengers or members of the crew on such vessel or aircraft, as the case may be.

(3) Any passenger on such vessel or such aircraft and any member of the crew of such vessel or aircraft shall furnish to the master of the vessel or the pilot of the aircraft, as the case may be, any information required by him for the purpose of furnishing the return referred to in sub-section (1) or for furnishing the information required under sub-section (2).

(4) For the purpose of this section-

(a) "master of a vessel" and "pilot of any aircraft" shall include any person authorised by such master or pilot, as the case may be, to discharge on his behalf any of the duties imposed on him by this section;

(b) "passenger" means any person not being a bona-fide member of the crew, travelling or seeking to travel on a vessel or aircraft.

7. Obligation of hotel keepers and others to furnish particulars.

(1) It shall be the duty of the keeper of any premises whether furnished or unfurnished where lodging or sleeping accommodation is provided for reward, to submit to such person and in such manner such information in respect of foreigners accommodated in such premises, as may be prescribed.

Explanation. - The information referred to in this sub-section may relate to all or any of the foreigners accommodated at such premises and may be required to be submitted periodically or at any specific time or occasion.

(2) Every person accommodated in any such premises shall furnish to the keeper thereof a statement containing such particulars as may be required by the keeper for the purpose of furnishing the information referred to in sub-section (1).

(3) The keeper of every such premises shall maintain a record of the information furnished by him under sub-section (1) and of the information obtained by him under sub-section (2) and such record shall be maintained in such manner and preserved for such period as may be prescribed, and shall at all times be open to inspection by any police officer or by a person authorised in this behalf by the District Magistrate.

8. Determination of nationality.

(1) When a foreigner is recognised as a national by the law or more than one foreign country or where for any reason it is uncertain what nationality if any is to be ascribed to a foreigner, that foreigner may be treated as the national of the country with which he appears to the prescribed authority to be most closely connected for the time being in interest or sympathy or if he is of uncertain nationality, of the country with which he was last so connected;

Provided that where a foreigner acquired a nationality by birth, he shall, except where the 22[Government] so directs either generally or in a particular case, be deemed to retain that nationality unless he proves to the satisfaction of the said authority that he has subsequently acquired by naturalization or otherwise some other nationality and still recognised as entitled to protection by the Government of the country whose nationality he has so acquired.

(2)A decision as to nationality given under sub-section (1) shall be final and shall not be called in question in any Court;

Provided that the 23[Government], either of its own motion or on an application by the foreigners concerned, may revise any such decision.

9. Burden of Proof.

If any case not falling under section 8 any question arises with reference to this Act or any order made or direction given thereunder, whether any person is or is not a foreigner or is or is not a foreigner of a particular class or description the onus of proving that such person is not a foreigner or is not a foreigner of such particular class or description, as the case may be, shall, notwithstanding anything contained in the Evidence Act, 1872, lie upon such person.

2610. Power to exempt from application of Act.

The 24a[Government] may by order 25declare that any or all of the provisions of this Act or the orders made thereunder shall not apply, or shall apply only with such modifications or subject to such conditions as may be specified, to or in relation to any individual foreigner or any class or description of foreigner.

11. Power to give effect to orders, directions, etc.

(1)Any authority empowered by or under or in pursuance of the provisions of this Act give any direction or to exercise any other power, may, in addition to any other action expressly provided for in this Act, take, or cause to be taken such steps and use, or cause to be used, such force as may, in its opinion, be reasonably necessary for securing compliance with such direction or for preventing or rectifying any breach thereof, or for the effective exercise of such power, as the case may be.

(2)Any police officer may take such steps and use such force as may, in his opinion, be reasonably necessary for securing compliance with any order made or direction given of this Act or for preventing or rectifying any breach of such order or direction.

(3)The power conferred by this section shall be deemed to confer upon any person acting in exercise thereof a right of access to any land or other property whatsoever.

12 Power to delegate authority.

Any authority upon which any power to make or give any direction, consent or permission or to do any other act is conferred by this Act or by any order²⁷ made thereunder may, unless express provision is made to the contrary, in writing authorise, conditionally or otherwise, any authority subordinate to it to exercise such power on its behalf, and thereupon the said subordinate authority shall, subject to such conditions as may be contained in the authorisation, be deemed to be the authority upon which such power is conferred by or under this Act.

13 Attempts, etc., to contravene the provisions of this Act, etc.-

(1) Any person who attempts to contravene, or abets or attempts to abet, or does any act preparatory to, a contravention, of the provisions of this Act or of any order made or direction given thereunder, or fails to comply with any direction given in pursuance of any such order, shall be deemed to have contravened the provisions of this Act.

(2) Any person who, knowing or having reasonable cause to believe that any other person has contravened the provisions of this Act or of any order made or direction given thereunder, gives that other person any assistance with intent thereby to prevent, hinder or otherwise interfere with his arrest, trial or punishment for the said contravention shall be deemed to have abetted that contravention.

(3) The master of any vessel or the pilot of any aircraft, as the case may be, by means of which any foreigner enters or leaves²⁸ [Bangladesh] in contravention of any order made under, or direction given in pursuance of, section 3 shall, unless he proves that he exercised all due diligence to prevent the said contravention, be deemed to have contravened this Act.

14 Penalties.

If any person contravenes the provisions of this Act or of any order made thereunder, or any direction given in pursuance of this Act or such order, he shall be punished with imprisonment for a term which may extend to five years and shall also be liable to fine; and if such person has entered into a bond in pursuance of clause (1) of sub-section (2) of section 3, his bond shall be forfeited, and any person bound thereby shall pay the penalty thereof, or show cause to the satisfaction of the convicting Court why such penalty should not be paid.

15 Protection to persons acting under this Act.

No suit, prosecution or other legal proceeding shall lie against any person for anything which is in good faith done or intended to be done under this Act.

16 Application of other laws not barred.

The provisions of this Act shall be in addition to, and not in derogation of, the provisions of the Registration of Foreigners Act, 1939, the Passport Act, 1920, and of any other enactment for the time being in force.
