PROPOSED DECISION

This claim against the Government of Albania is based upon the alleged confiscation of real property located in the village of Carshova, in the District of Permet.

Under section 4(a) of Title I of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949 ("ICSA"), as amended, the Commission has jurisdiction to receive, examine, adjudicate, and render final decisions with respect to claims of . . . nationals of the United States included within the terms of . . . any claims agreement on and after March 10, 1954, concluded between the Government of the United States and a foreign government (exclusive of governments against which the United States declared the existence of a state of war during World War II) . . . providing for the settlement and discharge of claims of . . . nationals of the United States against a foreign government, arising out of the nationalization or other taking of property, by the agreement of the Government of the United States to accept from that government a sum in en bloc settlement thereof.

22 U.S.C. 1623(a) (1994).

The Governments of the United States and Albania concluded an agreement for en bloc settlement of claims of United States nationals against Albania on March 10, 1995. Agreement Between the Government of the United States and the Government of the Republic of Albania on the Settlement of Certain Outstanding Claims, March 10, 1995 (entered into force April 18, 1995) ("Settlement Agreement"). Claims covered by the Settlement Agreement are the claims of United States nationals (including natural and juridical persons) against Albania arising from any nationalization, expropriation, intervention, or other taking of, or measures affecting, property of nationals of the United States prior to the date of this agreement[.]

Settlement Agreement, Article 1(a).

The Agreed Minute to the Settlement Agreement further provides:

For purposes of article 1, the term "United States nationals" shall include dual United States-Albanian nationals only if those nationals are domiciled in the United States currently or for at least half the period of time between when the property was taken and the date of entry into force of the agreement.

In effect, this residency requirement limits the Commission's jurisdiction over the claims of dual nationals to those cases where the owner of the claim either (1) was domiciled in the United States on April 18, 1995 (the effective date of the Settlement Agreement), or (2) was domiciled in the United States for at least half the period of time between the date the property was expropriated and April 18, 1995.

Claimant here, a United States national by birth, seeks compensation for 0.7497 hectares of agricultural land said to have been expropriated by the Albanian government with the establishment of the agricultural cooperative in 1957. At that time, according to claimant, the property was owned by his father, Stathi Boci (Botsi) (also known as Charles S. Botsis), who was naturalized as a United States citizen in 1928 and who lived in the U.S. from the early 1900s until 1970. The claimant states that he inherited the right to claim for the property upon the death of his father in Albania in 1978.*

Unfortunately, the information provided by claimant to date is not sufficient to establish his right to compensation. It appears that claimant is a dual U.S.-Albanian national, because his father was an Albanian citizen. Under Albanian law, claimant retains Albanian nationality notwithstanding his U.S. nationality by birth.

*There is conflicting evidence on the date of the death of claimant's father. The claim form and claimant's December 13, 1995 letter correctly state that claimant's father died in 1978. But the English translation of the 1978 Tirana court decision erroneously states that claimant's father died in 1973.

Because claimant is a dual United States-Albanian national, the Commission is constrained to apply the residency requirement in the Agreed Minute to the Settlement Agreement. Although claimant is now living in the United States, there is no evidence that he was living in the U.S. on April 18, 1995, the effective date of the Settlement Agreement. Moreover, while claimant's father is said to have lived in the U.S. for 13 or 14 years after the claim arose (that is, until 1970), there is no evidence that claimant lived in the U.S. for five or six years after his father's death in 1978 and before April 1995. Thus, there is no evidence that the owner of the claim lived in the U.S. for at least half the approximately 38 years between the confiscation in 1957 and April 1995.

Section 531.6(d) of the Commission's regulations provides:

The claimant shall be the moving party, and shall have the burden of proof on all issues involved in the determination of his or her claim.

45 C.F.R. 531.6(d) (1995).

The Commission finds that claimant here has not met the burden of proof in that he has failed to establish either that he was living in the United States on April 18, 1995 or that the owner of the claim was living in the United States for at least half the time between April 18, 1995 and the date the claim arose. In the absence of such evidence, the Commission is unable to find that the residency requirement in the Agreed Minute to the Settlement Agreement is satisfied.

Accordingly, while the Commission sympathizes with claimant for the loss of his family's property, it cannot find -- on the evidence submitted to date -- that this claim is compensable under the terms of the Settlement Agreement. The claim therefore must be and is hereby denied.

The Commission finds it unnecessary to make determinations with respect to other elements of this claim.
