PROCEEDINGS AND DEBATES OF THE 87th CONGRESS, SECOND SESSION

Vol. 108

WASHINGTON, THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 20, 1962

No. 170

Senate

The Senate met at 10 o'clock a.m., and was called to order by the Vice President.

The Chaplain, Rev. Frederick Brown Harris, D.D., offered the following prayer:

Oh God, in whose strong hands are the threads of every life which seeks its pattern on the loom of Thy righteous will, back of all our thinking and striving we are conscious of something divine that haunts us and will not let us go—something at work behind our fallible minds. Sometimes in the stillness we hear it like soft bells at evening pealing; sometimes in hours of mystic insight we feel it, and rising above the trifles which so often clutter our days, our hungry and empty hearts cry out, "Nearer, my God, to Thee, nearer to Thee." If that petition is but answered in these stern, strange times in which our lot is cast, if really in our hearts we draw near to Thee, then at Thy fire our little candle will blaze as we bring Thy light to every shadowed area of human need.

Even so, send us forth in the Spirit of the Master whose we are and whom we serve. Amen.

CORRECTION OF THE RECORD

Mr. GOLDWATER. Mr. President, I ask unanimous consent to have a correction made in the House proceedings for the permanent RECORD. The mistake appears on page 18846 of yesterday's RECORD—that for September 19—and is embodied in the conference report on H.R. 8900, the higher education bill. On that page it is indicated that the signatures of Representative CARROLL KEARNS, the Senator from Alabama [Mr. HILL], and myself appeared as in agreement with the conference report. Mr. President, neither of us signed the report. I know it is only a technical error; therefore, I ask unanimous consent that our
