THE COURAGE OF RUDY HERNANDEZ

Mr. DeCONCINI. Mr. President, one of the most effective tools our law enforcement agencies in Arizona to combat the scourge of gangs is an innovative program called GREAT. These initiatives stand for Gang Resistance, Education, and Training. The program is a joint effort of the Phoenix Police Department, the Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco, and Firearms, and the Federal Law Enforcement Training Institute.

In Rudy’s own words at Good Samaritan Hospital in Phoenix, “they were measuring me for a casket.” He was in a coma and the doctors did not think he would live.

As Rudy did live and he has an important message for young people. When asked what he would tell kids as a result of his involvement in GREAT and in spite of the retaliation taken against him, Rudy strongly says “I’d tell them that if you guys want to join a gang, look at what happened to me.”

When asked what he would tell someone thinking of joining a gang, Rudy even more strongly says “I would tell them, Man, that’s stupid.”

I salute Rudy Hernandez and the other young people who have the courage and foresight to take charge of their lives and futures. Rudy Hernandez is a hero to his Hispanic friends, his family, and all the young men and women who face these difficult decisions.

THE VIRGINIA WORKING SESSION ON NAFTA

Mr. WARNER. Mr. President, I come before the Senate today to share with colleagues a summary of the working session on the North America Free Trade Agreement (NAFTA) which I
