

ice wrote Chairman POAGE to state that if the bill were enacted, costs would increase an average of $100,000 for administration of each contract and 10 percent on the operational costs of procuring tanker service.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from Washington (Mr. FOLEY) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill H.R. 12071.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the bill was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

GENERAL LEAVE

Mr. FOLEY. Mr. Speaker, I ask unanimous consent that all Members may have 5 legislative days in which to revise and extend their remarks on the bill just passed.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Is there objection to the request of the gentleman from Washington?

There was no objection.

ANNOUNCEMENT BY THE SPEAKER

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Debate has been concluded on all motions to suspend the rules.

Pursuant to clause 3, rule XXVII, the Chair will now put the question on each motion, on which further proceedings were postponed, in the order in which that motion was entertained.

Votes will be taken in the following order: S. 782 (de novo); H.R. 16757 (de novo); and H.R. 17434 (de novo).

ANTITRUST PROCEDURES AND PENALTIES ACT

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The unfinished business is the question of suspending the rules and passing the Senate bill (S. 782), as amended.

The Clerk read the title of the Senate bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from New Jersey (Mr. RODINO) that the House suspend the rules and pass the Senate bill (S. 782), as amended.

The question was taken; and (two-thirds having voted in favor thereof) the rules were suspended and the Senate bill, as amended, was passed.

A motion to reconsider was laid on the table.

EXTENDING THE EMERGENCY PETROLEUM ALLOCATION ACT OF 1973

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The unfinished business is the question of suspending the rules and passing the bill, H.R. 16757.

The Clerk read the title of the bill.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. The question is on the motion offered by the gentleman from West Virginia (Mr. STAGGERS) that the House suspend the rules and pass the bill H.R. 16757.

The question was taken.

Mr. PICKLE. Mr. Speaker, I object to the vote on the ground that a quorum is not present and make the point of order that a quorum is not present.

The SPEAKER pro tempore. Evidently a quorum is not present.

The Sergeant at Arms will notify absent Members.
