Mr. EASTLAND. Mr. President, on September 21, 1961, S. 167, a bill to authorize the Attorney General to compel the production of documentary evidence required in civil investigations for the enforcement of the antitrust laws, passed the Senate.

On March 13, 1962, the House of Representatives passed this bill, with amendments.

I move that the Senate disagree to the House amendments, request a conference, and that conferences be appointed on the part of the Senate.

The motion was agreed to, and the Presiding Officer appointed Mr. EASTLAND, Mr. KEFAUVER, Mr. JOHNSTON, Mr. DIRKSON, and Mr. HUSKOA conferences on the part of the Senate.

MESSAGE FROM THE HOUSE

A message from the House of Representatives, by Mr. Maurer, one of its reading clerks, announced, that the House had passed, without amendment, the bill (S. 2165) for the relief of Jean L. Doul.

The message also announced that the House had agreed to the report of the committee of conference on the disagreeing votes of the two Houses on the amendments of the Senate to the bill (H.R. 4130) to lessen the impact of the termination of Federal services to the Menominee Indian Tribe of Wisconsin.

The message further announced that the House had passed the bill (H.R. 10431) to revise, codify, and enact title 37 of the United States Code, entitled “Pay and Allowances of the Uniformed Services,” in which it requested the concurrence of the Senate.

ENROLLED BILLS SIGNED

The message also announced that the Speaker had affixed his signature to the following enrolled bills, and they were signed by the Vice President:

S. 1691. An act to provide that any juvenile who has been determined delinquent by a district court of the United States may be committed to the custody of the Attorney General for supervision and study; and

S. 1756. An act for the relief of the city of Pasco, Wash.

HOUSE BILL REFERRED

The bill (H.R. 10431) to revise, codify, and enact title 37 of the United States Code, entitled “Pay and Allowances of the Uniformed Services,” was read twice by its title and referred to the Committee on the Judiciary.

THE ALEXANDER HAMILTON NATIONAL MONUMENT—AMENDMENT TO THE CONSTITUTION DEALING WITH POLL TAXES

The Senate resumed the consideration of the motion of the Senator from Montana (Mr. MANSFIELD) to proceed to the consideration of the joint resolution (S.J. Res. 29) providing for the establishment of the Alexander Hamilton as a national monument.

Mr. EASTLAND. Mr. President, as I stated, we do not have jurisdiction over those States, but we have primary jurisdiction over the District of Columbia. The Constitution of the United States
