RETIREMENT OF FRANK E. BATTAGLIA

Mr. MANSFIELD. Mr. President, I would like at this time to express my regret at the retirement of Frank E. Battaglia, the dean of the Official Reporters of the House of Representatives.

Mr. Battaglia came to the House in my second year over there, I believe, in 1944.

He has been an excellent official of the Congress. His work is outstanding. He is one of the truly great reporters with whom I have had any contact—a man who has dignity, understanding, and a sense of humor, and a man who excels in perfection so far as his work is concerned.

I know that the House of Representatives will miss him, but I, too, will miss him, because of the many contributions and the outstanding service he has rendered to the Congress and in the Congress over the past 30 years.
