A BILL

To amend title 18, United States Code, to provide increased penalties for certain major frauds against the United States.

1 Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representa-
2 tives of the United States of America in Congress assembled,
SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "Major Fraud Act of 1988".

SEC. 2. CHAPTER 47 AMENDMENT.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 47 of title 18, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end the following:

"§ 1031. Major fraud against the United States

"(a) Whoever knowingly executes, or attempts to execute any scheme or artifice—

"(1) to defraud the United States; or

"(2) to obtain money or property from the United States by means of false or fraudulent pretenses, representations, or promises;

in any procurement of property or services for the Government, if the value of the contract for such property or services is $1,000,000 or more, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than 7 years, or both. The fine imposed for an offense under this section may exceed the maximum otherwise provided by law, if such fine does not exceed twice the value of such contract and the amount of the fraud is substantial in relation to the value of such contract. A prosecution of an offense under this section may be commenced any time not later than 7 years after the offense is committed.

"(b) Upon application by the Attorney General, the court may order a payment from a criminal fine under this section to an individual who furnished information leading to the conviction under this section. The amount of such payment shall not exceed $250,000. An officer or employee of a government who furnishes information or renders service in the performance of official duties is not eligible for a payment under this subsection.

"(c) Any individual who is discharged, demoted, suspended, threatened, harassed, or in any other manner dis-erminated against in the terms and conditions of employment by an employer because of lawful acts done by the employee on behalf of the employee or others in furtherance of a prossecution under this section (including investigation for, initiation of, testimony for, or assistance in such a prosecution) may, in a civil action, obtain all relief necessary to make such individual whole. Such relief shall include reinstatement with the same seniority status such individual would have had but for the discrimination; 2 times the amount of back pay, interest on the back pay, and compensation for any special damages sustained as a result of the discrimination; including litigation costs and reasonable attorneys' fees."

(b) CLERICAL AMENDMENT.—The table of sections at the beginning of chapter 47 of title 18, United States Code;
is amended by adding at the end the following new item:

"1031. Major fraud against the United States."
SECTION 1. SHORT TITLE.

This Act may be cited as the "Major Fraud Act of 1988".

SEC. 2. CHAPTER 47 AMENDMENT.

(a) IN GENERAL.—Chapter 47 of title 18, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end the following:

"§ 1031. Major fraud against the United States

"(a) Whoever knowingly executes, or attempts to execute, any scheme or artifice—

"(1) to defraud the United States; or

in any procurement of property or services for the Government, if the value of the contract for such property or services is $1,000,000 or more, shall be fined under this title or imprisoned not more than 10 years, or both.

"(b) If the offense involves a foreseeable and substantial risk of personal injury, the term of imprisonment imposed under subsection (a) of this section shall not be less than 2 years. The fine imposed for an offense under this section may exceed the maximum otherwise provided by law, if such fine does not exceed $10,000,000 and—

"(1) the amount of the fraud is substantial in relation to the value of such contract and the gross loss to the Government or the gross gain to a defendant is $250,000 or greater; or

"(2) the offense involves a foreseeable and substantial risk of personal injury.

"(c) A prosecution of an offense under this section may be commenced any time not later than 7 years after the offense is committed.

"(d)(1) Upon application by the Attorney General, the court may order a payment from a criminal fine under this section to an individual who furnished information leading to the conviction under this section. The amount of such payment shall not exceed $250,000.

"(2) An individual is not eligible for such a payment if—

"(A) that individual is an officer or employee of a government who furnishes information or renders service in the performance of official duties;

"(B) that individual failed to furnish the information in a timely manner to the individual's employer, unless the court determines the individual had justifiable reasons for that failure; or

"(C) that individual participated in the violation of this section with respect to which such payment would be made.
“(e) Any individual who is discharged, demoted, suspended, threatened, harassed, or in any other manner discriminated against in the terms and conditions of employment by an employer because of lawful acts done by the employee on behalf of the employee or others in furtherance of a prosecution under this section (including investigation for, initiation of, testimony for, or assistance in such a prosecution) may, in a civil action, obtain all relief necessary to make such individual whole. Such relief shall include reinstatement with the same seniority status such individual would have had but for the discrimination, 2 times the amount of back pay, interest on the back pay, and compensation for any special damages sustained as a result of the discrimination, including litigation costs and reasonable attorneys' fees.”.

(b) CLERICAL AMENDMENT.—The table of sections at the beginning of chapter 47 of title 18, United States Code, is amended by adding at the end the following new item:

"1031. Major fraud against the United States.".
