

GUAM

LR 16.6 Settlement Conference.

(a) At any time after an action or proceeding has been filed, any party may file a request for a settlement conference. Such conference may be held before a neutral judge, or before the assigned judge. If the conference is held before the judge trying the case, a written stipulation of all counsel shall be necessary prior to the settlement conference. Each party attending such a conference shall be represented by counsel authorized to participate in settlement negotiations. The Court may require, by Order issued prior to the settlement conference, the client or its authorized representative to personally attend the conference.

(b) Each party appearing at all conferences shall have full authority with respect to all matters on the agenda, including settlement of the action or proceeding