22	UNITED STATES' EXPLANATION OF
23	CONSENT-DECREE PROCEDURES
24	The United States submits this short memorandum summarizing the procedures regarding
25	the Court's entry of the proposed Final Judgment. This Judgment would settle this case under the
26	Antitrust Procedures and Penalties Act, 15 U.S.C. § 16(b)–(h) (the "APPA"), which applies to
27	civil antitrust cases brought and settled by the United States.

28

1. Today, the United States has filed a Complaint, this Explanation of Consent-Decree Procedures, a Stipulation, and a proposed Final Judgment. The parties have agreed that the Court may enter the proposed Final Judgment after the United States has complied with the APPA. The United States also has filed a Competitive Impact Statement relating to the proposed Final Judgment.

- 2. The APPA requires that the United States publish the proposed Final Judgment and the Competitive Impact Statement in the Federal Register and cause to be published a summary of the terms of the proposed Final Judgment and the Competitive Impact Statement in certain newspapers at least 60 days before entry of the proposed Final Judgment. Defendants in this matter have agreed to arrange and bear the costs for the newspaper notices. The notices will inform members of the public that they may submit comments about portions of the proposed Final Judgment to the United States Department of Justice, Antitrust Division, 15 U.S.C. § 16(b)–(c). The civil-penalty component of the proposed Final Judgment, however, is not open to public comment. Courts have consistently entered consent judgments for civil penalties under Section 7A of the Clayton Act, 15 U.S.C. § 18a, without employing APPA procedures. ¹
- 3. During the 60-day period, the United States will consider, and at the close of that period respond to, any comments that it has received, and it will publish the comments and the United States' responses in the Federal Register.
- 4. After the expiration of the 60-day period, the United States will file with the Court the comments and the United States' responses, and it may ask the Court to enter the proposed Final Judgment (unless the United States has decided to withdraw its consent to entry of the Final Judgment, as permitted by Section 2 of the Stipulation, see 15 U.S.C. § 16(d)).

¹ See, e.g., United States v. Berkshire Hathaway Inc., 2014-2 Trade Cas. (CCH) ¶78,870 (D.D.C.); United States v. Barry Diller, 2013-1 Trade Cas. (CCH) ¶ 78,446 (D.D.C.); United States v. MacAndrews & Forbes Holdings, Inc., 2013-1 Trade Cas. (CCH) ¶ 78,443 (D.D.C.).

5. If the United States requests that the Court enter the proposed Final Judgment after compliance with the APPA, 15 U.S.C. § 16(e)–(f), then the Court may enter the Final Judgment without a hearing, provided that it concludes that the Final Judgment is in the public interest.

Respectfully submitted,

/s/ Amy Fitzpatrick
