

FOREIGN CLAIMS SETTLEMENT COMMISSION
OF THE UNITED STATES
WASHINGTON, D.C. 20579

IN THE MATTER OF THE CLAIM OF

URSEL BUSH

Under the International Claims Settlement
Act of 1949, as amended

Claim No. G-3315

Decision No. G-0204

PROPOSED DECISION

This claim in an unstated amount is submitted pursuant to Title VI of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, as amended.

Claimant, URSEL BUSH, states that she is a German citizen.

Under Section 603 of Title VI of the International Claims Settlement Act of 1949, (90 Stat. 2509), as amended by Public Law 94-542, the Commission's jurisdiction is limited as follows:

"A claim shall not be favorably considered under section 602 of this title unless the property right on which it is based was owned, wholly or partially, directly or indirectly, by a national of the United States on the date of loss, and if favorably considered, the claim shall be considered only if it has been held by one or more nationals of the United States continuously from the date that the loss occurred until the date of filing with the Commission."

Therefore, the only jurisdiction given the Commission is to receive and determine claims by nationals of the United States which in the case of an individual is defined by section 601(1)(a) as "a natural person who is a citizen of the United States."

As claimant, URSEL BUSH, is not currently a national of the United States the Commission finds that it has no jurisdiction to grant an award in this claim.

The Commission finds it unnecessary to make determinations with respect to other elements of this claim.
