Executive Office for Immigration Review to Host Regional Stakeholder Meeting in Atlanta

SUMMARY: The Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR) invites interested parties to attend a stakeholder meeting to discuss the work of the Atlanta Immigration Court. Those interested in attending may submit questions in advance to assist in informing the meeting's agenda. Please note that a listen-only teleconference and webinar option will also be available for this meeting.

DATE: Monday, Aug. 29, 2016, from 10 a.m. – 11:30 a.m. (Eastern)

LOCATION: Atlanta Immigration Court
Courtroom 2
180 Ted Turner Drive, SW, Suite 241
Atlanta, GA 30303

RSVP: To RSVP and submit questions for the meeting, please contact Lauren Alder Reid, EOIR Chief and Counsel for the Office of Communications and Legislative Affairs, at EngageWithEOIR@usdoj.gov by Friday, July 29, 2016. In person attendance will be limited to the first 40 individuals to RSVP.

In your email, please indicate whether you intend to participate in person or in listen-only mode via webinar/teleconference and provide the name(s) of the attendee(s), your organization, and an email address.

EOIR will send a confirmation email by Monday, Aug. 22, 2016, to those who RSVP, including webinar and teleconference information for those who indicate remote participation.

— EOIR —

The Executive Office for Immigration Review (EOIR) is an agency within the Department of Justice. Under delegated authority from the Attorney General, immigration judges and the Board of Immigration Appeals interpret and adjudicate immigration cases according to United States immigration laws. EOIR's immigration judges conduct administrative court proceedings in immigration courts located throughout the nation. They determine whether foreign-born individuals – whom the Department of Homeland Security charges with violating immigration law – should be ordered removed from the United States or should be granted relief from removal and be permitted to remain in this country. The Board of Immigration Appeals primarily reviews appeals of decisions by immigration judges. EOIR's Office of the Chief Administrative Hearing Officer adjudicates immigration-related employment cases. EOIR is committed to ensuring fairness in all of the cases it adjudicates.
