This matter comes before the Court on Plaintiff United States of America’s Complaint for an injunction and other equitable relief, and its ex parte motion pursuant to Fed.R.Civ.P. 65(b) for a Temporary Restraining Order (“TRO”) with business bank account freeze and an Order to Show Cause why a Preliminary Injunction Should Not Issue. The TRO with business bank account freeze and Order to Show Cause have been granted ex parte and served with the Complaint and Summons on all Defendants. The defendants were all properly served prior to this hearing. Virginia Cronan Lowe and Rick Watson appeared on behalf of the United States. W. Kevin Jackson appeared on behalf of defendants Scott M. Boley, Douglas C. Morby and Robert A. Langford.. Charles Brown attended as general counsel for the corporate defendants. The Court offered to continue the hearing if the defendants Boley, Morby and Langford would consent to an extension of the Temporary Restraining Order however, counsel for defendants Boley, Morby and Langford stated that they preferred to continue with the hearing on the entry of the preliminary injunction. The Court, having considered all pleadings, declarations, exhibits, and memoranda of law filed in support thereof, and having heard oral argument and now being fully advised in the premises, finds:

1. This Court has jurisdiction of the subject matter of this case, and there is good cause to believe that it will have jurisdiction of all parties to the case, and that venue in this district is proper.

2. There is good cause to believe that defendants Paysource LLC, Provident Management Group, Inc., Provident Business Partners, Inc., Scott M. Boley, Douglas C. Morby, Robert A. Langford, Zephyr Trust, Omega Resources Group Trust, Timpview Marketing Trust, Albion Tech Trust and Maritime Group Trust have misused client funds, have failed to file federal employment tax returns and failed to make federal tax deposits on behalf of their clients, and that the United States is therefore likely to prevail on the merits of this action.

3. There is good cause to believe that immediate and irreparable harm will result from defendants' actions unless defendants are restrained and enjoined by order of this Court.

4. Weighing the equities and considering the United States' likelihood of ultimate success, a Preliminary Injunction enjoining defendants from continuing to operate a payroll service company or starting a new payroll service or employee leasing company, freezing defendants' assets, appointing a Permanent Receiver and other equitable relief is in the public interest.

5. No security is required of the United States for issuance of a restraining order. Fed. R. Civ. P. 65(c).
