Tribal Narrative Profile (35%)

You may enter as much, or as little, text as needed to fully describe the community as long as the total number of pages for the entire Tribal Narrative Profile does not exceed 15 pages. Remember that the individuals reviewing the application may not be familiar with the community, so descriptions should be as clear and detailed as possible. Be sure that every question is answered. If there are questions that you are unable to answer, provide an explanation as to why the information is unavailable.

1. Describe the general form of your tribal government.
2. Briefly describe the tribal justice infrastructure as it relates to the following (if services are not available within the Tribe, please describe how they are accessed or provided):
 - a. Coordinated prevention and/or intervention initiatives and programs for youth and adults at-risk of involvement or already involved in the justice system
 - b. Law enforcement, including any cross-jurisdictional agreements
 - c. Courts
 - d. Alternative dispute resolution
 - e. Corrections, including juvenile detention facilities
 - f. Services for victims/survivors of domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence, and stalking
 - g. Tribal reentry programs
 - h. Sex offender registry obligations
 - i. Other infrastructure topics not identified above
3. Describe the significant tribal justice, community safety, juvenile delinquency, and victimization issues (e.g., domestic violence, sexual assault, dating violence, and stalking) facing the community.
 - 1 Explain why these issues are the most pressing.
 - 2 Ensure that the problems described are connected to the purpose areas for which the Tribe is applying.
4. Describe current and previous efforts and collaboration to address the identified issues and list previously awarded federal grant funds used for these activities.
5. For each purpose area identified in the Executive Summary, briefly describe how these purpose areas interrelate and are linked to the overall challenges of the Tribe as described in the Tribal Community and Justice Profile.

Tribal Community and Justice Profile Part B: Tribal Narrative Profile
