Financial Management Systems

- All recipients are required to:
  - Establish/maintain auditable accounting records;
  - Accurately account for funds awarded; and
  - Funds for each award must be accounted for separately from other grants and other funding sources.
- Records shall include Federal, matching, and program income.
States and locals shall expend/account for grant funds per Federal or State laws & procedures for their funds.

(whichever are more restrictive)
Financial Management Systems

Accounting and Internal Controls:

– Proper stewardship of Federal resources is an essential responsibility of the grantee organization.

– Grantees must ensure that Federal programs and resources are used efficiently and effectively to achieve desired objectives.
Internal Controls and Segregation of Duties:

- Strong internal controls ensure effective and efficient operations, reliable financial reporting, and compliance with applicable laws and regulations.

- Proper segregation of duties is a critical element of adequate internal control.
Adequate Accounting System:

– Grantee must maintain an adequate system of accounting and internal controls and ensure that an adequate system exists for each of its subrecipients.
Financial Management Systems

Adequate Accounting System:

– Presents and classifies costs, as required for budgetary and evaluation purposes.
– Provides cost and property control to ensure optimal use of funds.
– Controls funds/resources to assure conformance with general or special conditions.
An adequate accounting system:

– Meets requirements for periodic reporting.
– Provides financial data for planning, control, measurement, and evaluation of direct and indirect costs.
In summary, a Financial Management System must be able to record and report on the:

- Receipt;
- Obligation; and
- Expenditures of grant funds

Federal Financial Report (SF-425)
Quarterly Federal Financial Reports are submitted through the Grants Management System (GMS) at https://grants.ojp.usdoj.gov.

Effective October 1, 2009, grant recipients will be required to report grant expenditures utilizing the Federal Financial Report Form (SF-425). This form replaced the Financial Status Report (FSR), known as the SF-269.
Financial information reported on the SF-425 is similar to the SF-269.

The SF-425 quarterly report must be submitted no later than 30 days after the end of each calendar quarter.
Notice: OVC VOCA Administrators. The Annual VOCA performance reports are in GMS. Please review the job aids. The link is: https://grants.ojp.usdoj.gov/gmsHelp/index.html

Effective October 27, 2007, all OJP and OVW grantees must submit their financial status reports in OJP's Grants Management System. Directions on how to use the new module can be found at http://www.ojp.usdoj.gov/funding/FSR_User_Manual.pdf

The Grant Management System (GMS) allows grantees to report on their grant progress through an online Categorical Assistance Progress Report or online Performance Report.

Features include:

- Data for form is filled in with information already in GMS
- Grantees can attach documents as part of their report
- E-mail notifications occur to remind grantees to submit report
- OJP grant managers can review and send back incomplete reports to grantees
Reporting Requirements

- Check the special conditions on your Award Document or the Solicitation, to determine due dates for Progress Reports.

- If Progress Reports are delinquent, drawdowns will not be processed.

- If Progress Reports are delinquent, future awards and grant adjustment notices may not be processed.

- Progress reports should be submitted online utilizing GMS.
Questions concerning GMS may be addressed to the GMS Help Desk at 1-(888) 549-9901
