Clerk, U.S. District & Bankruptcy
Courts for the District of Columbia

ORDER

Upon the motion of the United States of America pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, § 3771, dated January 14, 2011 it is found that (a) there are thousands of potential victims in this case; (b) additional potential victims who have not yet been identified by the Government, and no readily available compilation of such individuals and entities exists, and (c) it is impracticable to accord all of the potential victims the rights described in Title 18, United States Code, § 3771(a).

It is further found, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, § 3771(d)(2), that the procedures described below regarding victim notification and victims rights are reasonable and will give effect to Title 18, United States Code, § 3771 without unduly complicating or prolonging the proceedings in this matter.

Accordingly, it is hereby ORDERED

That the following procedures are reasonable and give effect to the notification rights contained in Title 18, United States Code, § 3771 (a):

- 1. The United States Attorney's Office will post notification about scheduled public proceedings on its Internet website at www.justice.gov/usao/dc/Victim_Witness_Assistance/ on a separate Web page for this case and that page will also provide the following information:

- a. The caption, case number and assigned judge for the case for which notification is made;
 - b. A substantially verbatim listing of the rights provided for in Title 18, United States Code, § 3771(a);
 - c. A listing of public proceedings scheduled in the case; and
 - d. The name and contact information for a United States Attorney's Office official with responsibility for addressing victims rights.
2. The Government will update its Internet posting relating to this case to reflect scheduled public proceedings, within a reasonable period of time of such scheduling.
 3. The Government will include a link on the website created for the remission program, www.adsurfdailyremission.com to the United States Attorney's Office's website for potential victims seeking information about public proceedings in the criminal case.
 4. The Government will post this Order and its Motion Pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, § 3771 on its website.

So ORDERED, this 14 day of January, 2011.
