Four Alleged Hijackers Added to the FBI's Most Wanted Terrorists List with a Reward For Justice Offer Announced

The Federal Bureau of Investigation announced today that four individuals who have been charged for their role in a 1986 hijacking have been placed on the FBI's Most Wanted Terrorists list. This action is undertaken in coordination with a joint announcement with the U.S. Department of State that the Rewards for Justice Program is offering a reward of up to $5 million each for information leading to the arrest and/or conviction of the four individuals.

The following is the text of a joint Rewards for Justice – Federal Bureau of Investigation statement on a reward offer for information about the hijackers of Pan Am Flight 73:

The U.S. Department of State has authorized a reward of up to $5 million each for information leading to the arrest and/or conviction of Wadoud Muhammad Hafiz al-Turki, Jamal Saeed Abdul Rahim, Muhammad Abdullah Khalil Hussain ar-Rahayyal, and Muhammad Ahmed al-Munawar — all believed to have been members of the Abu Nidal terrorist organization.

These four suspects have been charged in the District of Columbia for their role in the September 5, 1986 hijacking of Pan American World Airways Flight 73 during a stop in Karachi, Pakistan. The attack resulted in the murder of at least 20 passengers and crew, including two Americans, the attempted murder of 379 passengers and crew, and the wounding of more than 100 individuals on board.

Pakistani authorities arrested four suspects at the scene and later captured a fifth suspect who helped plan the attack. All five, including the four individuals subject to this reward offer, were tried, convicted and sentenced to prison in Pakistan.

In September 2001, one of the five convicted terrorists was released by Pakistani authorities. This individual was later apprehended by the Federal Bureau of Investigation, prosecuted and convicted in U.S. federal court on criminal charges, and is now serving a 160-year sentence in a maximum-security prison.
