

-PREPARE TO PROTECT- CHILD EXPLOITATION INVESTIGATION TRAINING

Wednesday, September 21, 2011 – 8:00am-5:00pm – FREE*

Clovis Veterans Memorial Auditorium 808 4th Street, Clovis, California

For those who protect our children, the Central California Internet Crimes Against Children's Task Force and the Clovis Police Department are proud to host a comprehensive 1-day training seminar featuring nationally recognized speakers.

Erin Runnion – Not One More Child

-Surviving mother of Samantha Runnion, whose precious 5-year-old life was cut short in July 2002 after being abducted by a sexual predator

-Founder of the Joyful Child Foundation, Co-Founder of the Surviving Parents Coalition and member of the Board of Directors for the National Association to PROTECT Children

-Award winning speaker/trainer for law enforcement, government, and the public

Dr. Berkowitz – Age Identification of Child Victims of Sexual Abuse Media

- Department of Pediatrics Executive Vice Chair, Division of General and Emergency Pediatrics Acting Chief, Director of Pediatric Clinic, Behavioral Pediatrics and Group Practice at Harbor-UCLA Medical Center

-International expert in child abuse, neglect, and failure to thrive; federal expert in age identification of children

-Award winning pediatrician for her leadership, clinical work, and research; established Child Abuse Fellowship at Harbor-UCLA Medical Center

Additional training includes Defining and Identifying Child Exploitation Media for Federal Prosecution by Assistant United States Attorney Brian Enos and Clovis Police Sergeant Matt McFadden.

RSVP to Central California ICAC at centralcaliforniaicac@gmail.com

*Training is for law enforcement personnel and professional staff directly supporting law enforcement. Credentials will be required after the lunch break for Dr. Berkowitz's session due to subject matter content.