

Inclusion and the Justice System: Why Jury Diversity Matters And the Importance of Jury Service

Townhall Meeting

June 27, 2012

5:30 p.m. – 7:00 p.m.

Wayne County Community College District,
Downtown Campus, Room 236

- ❖ Please join Michigan Chronicle Senior Editor Bankole Thompson and panelists for a conversation about the importance of racially and ethnically diverse juries in the criminal justice system and the importance of jury service.
- ❖ Speakers include: Hon. Gerald E. Rosen, Hon. Denise Page Hood, Hon. Victoria A. Roberts, Chief Federal Defender Miriam L. Siefer, U.S. Attorney Barbara L. McQuade, Rev. Bertram Marks, Michigan Civil Rights Commission
- ❖ Host: Dr. Curtis Ivery, Chancellor, Wayne County Community College District
- ❖ Court report available at www.mied.uscourts.gov

