ACKNOWLEDGMENT OF DUTY TO PRESERVE FEDERAL RECORDS

Part I: Notice of Duty to Preserve

Federal records created or received in the course of official business must be preserved by the sender or recipient in accordance with law. This duty applies not only to paper records, but also to any electronically stored information (ESI) that may constitute “Federal records” as defined below.

In conjunction with a user’s signing the network “Rules of Behavior,” this Notice shall also be reviewed by each user as a condition of access to the computer network facilities of any United States Attorneys’ Office (USAO) and/or the Executive Office for U.S. Attorneys (EOUSA).

The USAPs below are designed to alert new and existing users of the penalties for improper destruction of Federal records – and the need to preserve any/all information subject to a Litigation Hold (both Federal records and “non-record” materials); see:

- USAP 3-13.300.003 \(Legal and Litigation Hold Procedures\)
- USAP 3-16.200.003 \(Network Account Security Management\)
