

Join us for the "Voices of Youth" Film Festival

When: Tuesday, June 7th, 7:00 - 9:00 pm

Where: Enon Tabernacle Baptist Church
2800 West Cheltenham Avenue
Philadelphia, PA 19150

WHAT: Voices of Youth is an anti-violence project for students in Northwest Philadelphia. Sponsored by the U.S. Attorney's Office, the goal of the project is to have students reflect on the impact that violence has had on their lives, their families, and their communities. Students from New Media, Martin Luther King, Imhotep and Hope High Schools worked with Philadelphia's Village of Arts and Humanities and Well Productions on two documentary style films on violence and its impact on their communities.

