

Department of Justice

POTENTIAL VICTIM FORM

United States v. Kim Dotcom, et al, Crim. No. 1:12CR3 (E.D. Va. O'Grady, J.)

1) Full contact information for Potential Victim (please include full mailing address, daytime phone number, email address). If you have legal counsel or other representative who will represent you in this matter, please provide their information as well.

2) Please describe briefly why you believe you may be a victim in the criminal case.

3) If your copyrighted works were reproduced or distributed by the alleged conduct of the defendants, please list those works (and, if available, all MD5 Hash Values associated therewith), and provide the suggested retail price of a digital copy of that work. For each work, please explicitly indicate whether you gave any of the defendants authorization to reproduce or distribute that work over the Internet.

4) Did you ever interact with the defendants or any of their agents? If so, please provide copies of any correspondence (including, but not limited to, any takedown requests and any URL links of which you were aware).

YES

NO

5) Are you willing to talk with government investigators?

YES

NO

6) Would you or a representative be willing to testify at proceedings associated with the case?

YES

NO

By submitting this information to the United States government, you agree, under penalty of perjury, that all the information contained in this form is true to the best of your knowledge and belief.