

MANAGING THREATENING SITUATIONS CREATING SAFE SCHOOL CLIMATES

Creating a culture and mechanisms to facilitate effective responses to threatening situation

Wednesday, Oct. 30, 2013 ♦ 8:30 am – 2:00 pm

FEATURED PRESENTERS

Catherine R. Camilletti, Ph.D. and Amanda Snook, Ph.D.
Social Science Research Specialists, National Threat Assessment Center,
United States Secret Service

AGENDA

- | | |
|-------|--|
| 7:30 | Registration/Coffee |
| 8:30 | Welcome Remarks by District Attorney Timothy Cruz, U.S. Attorney Carmen Ortiz, Special Agent in Charge Steven Ricciardi and Bridgewater State University President Dana Mohler-Faria |
| 8:45 | Foundations of Threat Assessment & U.S. Secret Service Model |
| 10:15 | Prevention of Targeted Violence: Threat Assessment in Context of K-12 |
| 11:30 | Lunch |
| 12:15 | Prevention of Targeted Violence: Threat Assessment in Context Higher Education (including workplace violence) |
| 1:30 | Information Sharing and Privacy Issues |
| 2:00 | Closeout/Evaluations |

Provided in partnership with the Plymouth County District Attorney's Office,
U.S. Secret Service and U.S. Attorney's Office for the District of Massachusetts
Hosted by Bridgewater State University