The National Crime Prevention Council (NCPC), founded in 1982, is the nation's nonprofit leader in crime prevention. For 30 years, our recognizable icon McGruff the Crime Dog® has delivered easy-to-use crime prevention tips that empower citizens to individually and collectively keep themselves, their families, and their communities safe from crime. Together with a vast network of local and state law enforcement agencies, local community groups, foundations, and corporate partners, NCPC makes an impact on personal safety and crime every day. For more information on how NCPC can help you "Take a Bite Out of Crime®," visit www.ncpc.org.

This project was supported by Grant No. 2010-DG-BX-K036 awarded by the Bureau of Justice Assistance. The Bureau of Justice Assistance is a component of the Office of Justice Programs, which also includes the Bureau of Justice Statistics, the National Institute of Justice, the Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention, the SMART Office, and the Office for Victims of Crime.
