Got you! I love you! I will explain all that. He wanted to do that in his own deal because of getting sick of Larry and always arguing with the mormons to be very honest. I don't want to finance any more license deals and so he was going to leave at end of year happily and do his own deal end of 2006. So instead he had a real relationship in the white goods biz that is where he grew up. So We made a concession if he worked to finish Polaroid through monetization and if we could (you me and Bob) own and control not rent a brand with him he would sell, manufacture and run the business. To date we are in negotiations to buy the R coffee and Sunbeam brands so not much has happened. I have approved no funding other than a couple people that were on Pcb s payroll so we could own it and keep it seperate from Polaroid when it gets sold when I go through the beginning to end you can tell me if you like and I will listen. I just want to get out of PCi alive and stay focused on Polaroid and the companies that can do that and I am really trying to make all that happen without you I can't. I do understand being down.

The reason I sent you flowers this week is I spent a fair amount of time rying about all I have done wrong in my life (crying inside and out) I ask daily to be able to get up and have God to help me change this company into one we are so proud of instead of full of shame! I am determined and so are you. I am so sorry that I ever got you in this shit. But I am not sorry for the fact that I call you one of my best friends in the whole world! For you have stood by in Pain, I owe you so many apologies, now I need to fix it. I am in it with you an Bob and together we will take it out. The decisions I make I do not ever try to keep from you.

I thought you would have been told about mikes proposal and eal in your time with David or Mary. I am sorry but am coming home filled with hope for us and life again. Thank you for all your love and support when its been so damn hard to do. Just a little longer. I mean what the lord said. Love ToM

Remember what ever is mine is 1/3 yours and 1/3 bobs and if anything is left mine. I love you both so much! Tom

When I talked to larry yesterday he told me that kc was done. They asked them if 165MM inventory left the warehouse last year. As far as larry knew they were done with kc and wanted to go into the other warehouses.

It's not the 10 percent to larry and mike on pol. It's the 50 percent to mike on the new co for white goods and sunbeam that I don't understand.

Not meant in a rude tone at all. If I learned to type on this BB. What I wanted to say was I do not remember getting involved other than when Polaroid was a licensee and we committed to do 30 mm I sales this year 2006 we have booked almost 1,2 billion. If you were asking about L Harmer I would understand more. However I won't try to debate as I don't know what you know about them giving some back and also when they did this deal it was on a license not on all of Polaroid. Anyway have a good weekend and forget about all you can. Love you Tom

Deanna,

I know you are very frustrated right now as we all get. However I don't know where this information came from? I spoke with Tim Gonsior today and he was willing to work with us, and I will call him Monday. He also stated that no one had inspected the warehouse in KC. Who told you they had finished it?

Also I would like to talk Tuesday when you return. If an issue exists on the amount of stock Mike O. Has in Polaroid I would like to know. I don't ever remember discussing it with you, however I would be more than happy too. When you have all the facts and you are against it! Then I would like to know. Maybe you do, but I think very possibly not. I don't know where this all came from but we will talk next week.

I hope you have a good weekend.

Tom

The ins co is done with the kansas city warehouse.

They want into the other 4 warehouses next week. Larry is going to call the ins co next week. However one warehouse that we've been using Larry no longer uses.
