21 SUPERSEDING INDICTMENT

22 The Grand Jury charges:

23 Introductory Allegations

24 At all times relevant to this Superseding Indictment, unless otherwise specified:

25 CalPERS and Buenrostro

26 1. The California Public Employees Retirement System (“CalPERS”) was an entity created 27 by the State of California that, among other duties and obligations, operated the pension benefit system 28 and health care benefit programs for current and former employees of the State of California and other

1 public entities in California. CalPERS was headquartered in Sacramento, California, and maintained 2 offices throughout California, including within the Northern District of California. CalPERS provided 3 retirement and health care benefits, among other services, to residents in the Northern District of 4 California and other beneficiaries. CalPERS received benefits in excess of $10,000 under a Federal 5 program involving a grant, contract, subsidy, loan, guarantee, or other form of federal assistance during 6 each and every three hundred and sixty-five (365) day period from in or about June 2006 and continuing 7 through in or about June 30, 2008.

8 2. CalPERS Board of Administration (the "CalPERS Board") was a statutory body vested 9 with the exclusive authority to manage, control, and direct the administration of CalPERS' operations, 10 including the investment of CalPERS' assets and the provision of health care benefits programs.
11 Members of the CalPERS Board are obligated by statute to discharge their duties as fiduciaries solely in 12 the interest of CalPERS' members and their beneficiaries.

13 3. The CalPERS Board appointed the Chief Executive Officer ("CEO") of CalPERS. The 14 CEO was the highest-ranking officer within CalPERS. The CEO derived his or her powers to oversee 15 the day-to-day administration of CalPERS' operations and employees by means of a written delegation 16 of authority from the CalPERS Board that detailed a fiduciary duty to act solely in the best interest of 17 CalPERS' members and their beneficiaries.

18 4. FEDERICO R. BUENROSTRO, JR., aka Fred Buenrostro ("BUENROSTRO"), 19 occupied a position of trust at CalPERS, serving as the CEO of CalPERS from on or about December 1, 20 2002, until on or about May 12, 2008. As CEO, defendant BUENROSTRO was responsible for, among 21 other things, the administration of CalPERS' financial affairs, including the operations of CalPERS' 22 investment staff and was entrusted with, among other things, confidential, internal, and proprietary 23 information relating to CalPERS' ongoing investments and prospective investment decisions in 24 connection with CalPERS' administration of billions of dollars in assets.

25 5. Based on his position as an officer and employee of CalPERS, BUENROSTRO owed a 26 duty of loyalty to the State of California, and its citizens, free from deceit, self-enrichment, concealment, 27 and conflict between his personal interests and the interests of the State of California. Specifically, as 28 CEO of CalPERS, BUENROSTRO owed the State of California and its citizens a duty to, among other

1 things: (a) refrain from using his official position or office to obtain personal benefit for himself or a 2 family member, California Penal Code § 68 and California Code of Regulations, Title 2, § 558; (b) 3 refrain from soliciting or receiving a thing of value for himself or a family member for the purpose of 4 influencing official action, pursuant to California Penal Code § 68 and California Code of Regulations, 5 Title 2, § 558; (c) maintain the confidentiality of information relating to the operations of CalPERS, 6 pursuant to California Government Code § 1098 and California Code of Regulations, Title 2, § 558; (d) 7 refrain from engaging in any employment, activity, and enterprise that was clearly inconsistent, 8 incompatible, in conflict with, or inimical to his or her duties as a state officer or employee, pursuant to 9 California Government Code § 19990 and California Code of Regulations, Title 2, § 558; and (e) 10 disclose, and not conceal, personal financial interests, the nature and amount of income received, and 11 other material financial information, pursuant to California Government Code § 19990 and California 12 Code of Regulations, Title 2, § 558.

13 ARVCO and Villalobos

14 6. ARVCO Capital Research, LLC was a limited liability company organized and existing 15 under the laws of the State of Nevada, with its principal place of business in Stateline, Nevada. ARVCO 16 also did business under the names “ARVCO Capital Research,” “ARVCO Financial Ventures, LLC,” 17 and “Capital Formation Partners.” ARVCO Capital Research, LLC, ARVCO Capital Research, 18 ARVCO Financial Ventures, LLC, and Capital Formation Partners will be referred to collectively 19 hereinafter as “ARVCO.”

20 7. ALFRED J. VILLALOBOS (“VILLALOBOS”) was the founder, managing director, and 21 majority shareholder for ARVCO and all of its predecessor entities.

22 8. Prior to founding ARVCO, VILLALOBOS had been appointed to the Board of 23 Administration of CalPERS, on which he served from approximately 1992 to approximately 1995.

24 9. VILLALOBOS operated ARVCO as a placement agent that solicited investments by 25 public pension funds into private equity funds. ARVCO was typically paid an agreed-upon fee based on 26 the percentage of the total dollar amount invested by the public pension fund.

27 10. In or around March 2007, Apollo Global Management (“Apollo”), a private equity firm 28 based in New York, New York, that had previously used ARVCO’s services in connection with prior

1 investments by CalPERS into its funds, registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission 2 (“SEC”) as an investment advisor. Thereafter, in order to comply with securities laws and regulations, 3 Apollo required all of its placement agents to obtain a signed “Investor Disclosure” letter from any 4 investor that they successfully placed in an Apollo-managed fund. Among other purposes, the Investor 5 Disclosure letters memorialized the fact that Apollo investors had been made aware of the relationship 6 between the placement agent and Apollo, including the fees to be paid to the placement agent based on 7 the nature and size of the investor’s commitment to a given Apollo fund. Apollo maintained these 8 Investor Disclosure letters provided by the placement agents in its files to comply with the SEC’s 9 requirement that investment advisors keep and maintain accurate books and records, among other 10 reasons.

11 11. Between approximately August 2007 and approximately April 2008, CalPERS 12 invested approximately $3 billion into funds managed by Apollo, identified as: Fund VII, Apollo 13 Investment Europe (“AIE”), Special Opportunities Managed Account (“SOMA”), European Principal 14 Loan Fund (“EPF”), and Credit Opportunity Fund (“COF”) (referred to collectively hereinafter as 15 “Apollo-managed funds”).

16 12. ARVCO acted as the placement agent on behalf of Apollo in connection with each of 17 these investments by CalPERS. In each instance, Apollo required ARVCO to obtain a written Investor 18 Disclosure letter from CalPERS prior to paying ARVCO any fees for its efforts in securing CalPERS’ 19 investments in each of the subject Apollo-managed funds, citing, among other reasons, Apollo’s 20 obligations under the Investment Advisers Act of 1940. All references to Investor Disclosure letters 21 throughout this Superseding Indictment refer collectively to the letters relating to CalPERS’ 22 investments, placed by ARVCO, into Fund VII, AIE, SOMA, EPF, and COF.

23 13. On or about August 23, 2007, in response to a request from ARVCO’s General Counsel, 24 a CalPERS Senior Portfolio Manager advised ARVCO that CalPERS would not sign the proposed 25 Investor Disclosure letter and referred any further questions regarding the matter to CalPERS’ in-house 26 counsel. ARVCO’s General Counsel contacted CalPERS’ in-house counsel, who confirmed that 27 CalPERS would not execute the requested Investor Disclosure letter. Shortly thereafter, ARVCO’s 28 General Counsel informed VILLALOBOS that CalPERS would not execute the requested Investor

1 Disclosure letter.

2 United States' Investigation of ARVCO

3 14. On or about May 9, 2009, ARVCO registered with the SEC as a broker-dealer.
4 As a registered broker-dealer, ARVCO was thereafter required, among other duties and obligations, to 5 make and to keep accurate books and records detailing, among other things, its securities transactions, 6 and to furnish copies of those records and other information to the SEC upon request.

7 15. On or about July 17, 2009, the SEC sent a Section 21(a) inquiry to ARVCO 8 seeking information about, among other things, its role as a placement agent in connection with 9 investments by public pension funds into private equity and other investment vehicles.

10 16. On or about May 18, 2010, the United States Postal Inspection Service ("USPIS") 11 opened a criminal investigation of ARVCO into possible mail fraud, wire fraud, and related charges.
12 The focus of the inquiry included ARVCO's response to the SEC regarding its role as a placement agent 13 in connection with investments made by CalPERS in private equity funds, the circumstances 14 surrounding ARVCO's receipt of commission fees from Apollo, and Investor Disclosure letters relating 15 to CalPERS' investments into Apollo-managed funds in 2007 and 2008.

16 17. On or about June 1, 2010, the Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI") opened a criminal 17 investigation into substantially similar matters. Shortly thereafter, the USPIS and FBI agreed to 18 investigate jointly the matters relating to ARVCO and its participation in CalPERS' investments into 19 Apollo-managed funds.

20 18. During the course of the investigations conducted by the SEC, the USPIS, and the 21 FBI, the following matters, among others, were material to each:

- 22 a. The existence of a financial relationship between VILLALOBOS and 23 BUENROSTRO;
- 24 b. When, and the manner and means by which, someone signed Investor Disclosure 25 letters on behalf of CalPERS in connection with CalPERS' investments in certain 26 Apollo-managed funds;
- 27 c. Whether and when anyone provided any of the signed Investor Disclosure letters 28 to CalPERS' intra-office mail system for filing in its investment records database;
and,
- d. Whether and to what extent an ARVCO representative asked anyone to sign Investor Disclosure letters that were missing substantive terms.

1 19. On or about February 3, 2012, BUENROSTRO submitted to a voluntary 2 interview in San Francisco, California, with the SEC, the USPIS, the FBI, and United States Attorney's 3 Office ("USAO") in connection with their ongoing investigations. BUENROSTRO responded to 4 questions about his role in, and knowledge of, the creation, execution, and transmittal of the Investor 5 Disclosure letters relating to CalPERS' investments into Apollo-managed funds in 2007 and 2008, as 6 well as the nature of his financial relationship with VILLALOBOS.

7 COUNT ONE: (18 U.S.C. § 371 – Conspiracy to Commit Bribery and Honest Services Fraud 8 and to Defraud the United States)

9 20. Beginning no later than 2005 and continuing to at least December 2013, both dates being 10 approximate and inclusive, in the Northern District of California, and elsewhere, the defendant,

11 ALFRED J. VILLALOBOS,

12 and others, including BUENROSTRO, did knowingly and intentionally conspire to commit offenses 13 against the United States, that is,

- 14 a. to corruptly give and accept bribes, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, 15 Section 666(a)(1)(B) and (a)(2);
- 16 b. to devise and intend to devise a scheme and artifice to defraud the citizens of the 17 State of California of their right to the honest services of defendant 18 BUENROSTRO, in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Sections 1341, 19 1343, and 1346;

20 and did knowingly and intentionally conspire with others, including BUENROSTRO, to defraud the 21 United States through deceit, craft, trickery, and dishonest means for the purpose of attempting to defeat 22 and obstruct the lawful functions of the SEC, USPIS, and FBI, in the oversight and enforcement of the 23 laws relating to the offer, sale, and purchase of securities, and other federal criminal laws.

24 Manner and Means of the Conspiracy

25 21. Beginning no later than 2005, during and after BUENROSTRO's tenure as CEO of 26 CalPERS, VILLALOBOS gave BUENROSTRO and his family, and BUENROSTRO accepted, things 27 of value, for the purpose of influencing and rewarding BUENROSTRO in connection with the business 28 of CalPERS, which things of value included the following:

- a. Approximately $200,000 in United States currency;
- b. Approximately $50,000 delivered via check;
- c. Entertainment, travel, lodging, jewelry, casino chips, and other benefits in kind,

1 including payment for BUENROSTRO's wedding; and

- 2 d. Employment with ARVCO, the benefits of which included approximately 3 $25,000 in salary per month.

4 22. As a result of those benefits, BUENROSTRO acted on behalf of VILLALOBOS and in 5 the interest of VILLALOBOS, in connection with the business of CalPERS, in ways including the 6 following:

- 7 a. At the request of VILLALOBOS, BUENROSTRO provided him with 8 confidential and proprietary information relating to CalPERS' investment 9 decisions;
- 10 b. At the request of VILLALOBOS, BUENROSTRO influenced, and attempted to 11 influence, the decisions and operations of CalPERS' Board and employees in 12 favor of persons and entities identified by VILLALOBOS as his current and 13 prospective clients, investment consultants, and other associates;
- 14 c. BUENROSTRO knowingly signed documents VILLALOBOS used to create 15 fraudulent Investor Disclosure letters, purportedly documenting disclosures to 16 CalPERS, to ensure ARVCO's receipt of approximately $14 million in 17 commission fees from Apollo.

18 23. BUENROSTRO and VILLALOBOS did conceal and hide, and caused to be concealed 19 and hidden, the acts done and the purpose of acts done in furtherance of the conspiracy, and the objects 20 of the conspiracy, in ways including the following:

- 21 a. BUENROSTRO and VILLALOBOS agreed on false versions of their corrupt 22 conduct and concealed documents relating to the true facts regarding their corrupt 23 relationship;
- 24 b. BUENROSTRO and VILLALOBOS concealed from, and misrepresented to, the 25 SEC, the USPIS, and the FBI, as well as the State of California, CalPERS, 26 Apollo, and other private and public litigants interested in the same matters, the 27 true facts concerning their corrupt relationship and the authenticity of the Investor 28 Disclosure letters; and,
- 29 c. VILLALOBOS directed others to conceal and misrepresent material facts 30 concerning his and ARVCO's relationship to BUENROSTRO and business with 31 CalPERS.

32 Overt Acts

33 24. In furtherance of the conspiracy and to effect the objects thereof, the following 34 overt acts were committed in the Northern District of California and elsewhere:

- 35 a. On or about November 2004, VILLALOBOS hosted BUENROSTRO's wedding 36 at VILLALOBOS' home in Nevada and paid for his wedding-related expenses;
- 37 b. In or about 2005, VILLALOBOS provided casino chips with redeemable cash 38 value to certain (now former) members of the CalPERS Board and

1 BUENROSTRO's wife, prior to the CalPERS Board considering a proposal from 2 a health care company in connection with CalPERS' healthcare benefit program;

- 3 c. In or about 2005, VILLALOBOS paid for BUENROSTRO to stay approximately 4 two nights at Harvey's Resort and Casino in Nevada;
- 5 d. In or about 2006, VILLALOBOS paid for BUENROSTRO to stay approximately 6 one night at Harrah's Lake Tahoe Resort and Casino in Nevada;
- 7 e. In or about November 2006, VILLALOBOS paid for BUENROSTRO's first class
8 airfare, hotel accommodations, meals, and entertainment as VILLALOBOS 9 accompanied BUENROSTRO in his official capacity as CalPERS' CEO to a 10 series of business meetings in Dubai, Hong Kong, and Macau;
- 11 f. In or about 2007, VILLALOBOS made, and BUENROSTRO accepted, a series of 12 direct cash payments in Sacramento, California, that eventually totaled 13 approximately $200,000;
- 14 g. On or about January 2, 2008, VILLALOBOS, BUENROSTRO, and others 15 created a backdated Investor Disclosure letter for ARVCO in connection with 16 CalPERS' investment in Fund VII;
- 17 h. On or about January 3, 2008, VILLALOBOS caused that Fund VII Investor 18 Disclosure letter to be transmitted via interstate carrier from Nevada to New 19 York;
- 20 i. On or about January 11, 2008, BUENROSTRO signed, and in some cases dated, 21 Investor Disclosure letters that were missing substantive terms;
- 22 j. On or about January 13, 2008, VILLALOBOS and others inserted substantive 23 terms summarizing ARVCO's role in connection with CalPERS' investments in 24 AIE, SOMA, and EPF, onto the incomplete Investor Disclosure letters previously 25 signed and dated by BUENROSTRO;
- 26 k. On or about January 14, 2008, VILLALOBOS caused the Investor Disclosure 27 letters for AIE, SOMA, and EPF, to be transmitted via interstate carrier from 28 California to New York;
- l. On or about March 14, 2008, BUENROSTRO transmitted an email in which he disclosed the contents of a confidential memorandum from the Chairman of CalPERS' Board to BUENROSTRO and requested VILLALOBOS' input and assistance in crafting BUENROSTRO's response to the Chairman;
- m. On or about June 19, 2008, VILLALOBOS and others inserted substantive terms summarizing ARVCO's role in connection with CalPERS' investment in COF, onto an incomplete Investor Disclosure letter previously signed by BUENROSTRO and added the written date of "5/20/08";
- n. On or about June 19, 2008, VILLALOBOS caused the COF Investor Disclosure letter to be transmitted via interstate carrier from Nevada to New York;
- o. On or about July 1, 2008, VILLALOBOS hired BUENROSTRO to work for ARVCO, initially as a consultant and later as a full-time employee;
- p. In or about March 2009, BUENROSTRO, at the request of VILLALOBOS, made a campaign contribution in the amount of approximately $2,400 to a

1 candidate for federal office, and for which BUENROSTRO was subsequently 2 reimbursed by VILLALOBOS;

- 3 q. On or about June 16, 2009, ARVCO transmitted via interstate wire transmission a 4 copy of the COF Investor Disclosure letter to Apollo;
- 5 r. On or about August 7, 2009, VILLALOBOS transmitted, or caused to be 6 transmitted, ARVCO's "Sworn Statement Pursuant to Section 21(a)(1) of the 7 Securities Act of 1934" to the SEC;
- 8 s. On or about September 24, 2009, VILLALOBOS executed, under penalty of 9 perjury, ARVCO's "Supplemental Sworn Statement Pursuant to Section 21(a)(1) 10 of the Securities Act of 1934";
- 11 t. On or about September 25, 2009, VILLALOBOS transmitted, or caused to be 12 transmitted, ARVCO's "Supplemental Sworn Statement Pursuant to Section 13 21(a)(1) of the Securities Act of 1934" to the SEC;
- 14 u. On or about April 14, 2010, VILLALOBOS made, and BUENROSTRO accepted, 15 a check in the approximate amount of $50,000 in connection with a promissory 16 note intended to conceal the true nature of their financial relationship;
- 17 v. On or about December 27, 2010, BUENROSTRO falsely answered certain 18 questions under oath in a deposition in the civil action of People v. Villalobos et 19 al., (Los Angeles County Superior Court, SC 107850), regarding his financial 20 relationship with VILLALOBOS and his role in, and knowledge of, the creation, 21 execution and transmittal of the fraudulent Investor Disclosure letters;
- 22 w. On or about November 28, 2011, VILLALOBOS executed a written response to 23 the SEC's "Wells" notice in which he, among other things, 24 (1) adopted BUENROSTRO's prior false statements from the 25 December 2010 deposition about the Investor Disclosure letters; 26 and,
27 (2) falsely represented and concealed his role in the creation, 28 execution, and transmittal of the fraudulent Investor Disclosure letters;
- 29 x. On or about February 3, 2012, BUENROSTRO participated in a voluntary 30 interview with the SEC, the USPIS, and the FBI, in which he falsely represented, 31 among other things,
32 (1) his financial relationship with VILLALOBOS; 33 (2) he had never signed any Investor Disclosure letters that were 34 missing substantive terms; 35 (3) he did not backdate any Investor Disclosure letters; and, 36 (4) he had signed two original copies of complete Investor Disclosure 37 letters for Fund VII, SOMA, AIE, EPF, and COF, whereupon he 38 had provided one original to ARVCO and submitted the second original to CalPERS' intra-office mail for filing in CalPERS' investment files;
- 39 y. On or about November 7, 2012, VILLALOBOS falsely answered certain 40 questions under oath in a deposition in the civil action of People v. Villalobos et 41 al., (Los Angeles County Superior Court, SC 107850), regarding his financial 42 relationship with BUENROSTRO and his role in, and knowledge of, the creation,

1 execution, and transmittal of the fraudulent Investor Disclosure letters;

- 2 z. On or about November 8, 2012, VILLALOBOS falsely answered certain
3 questions under oath in a deposition in the civil action of People v. Villalobos et 4 al., (Los Angeles County Superior Court, SC 107850), regarding his financial 5 relationship with BUENROSTRO and his role in, and knowledge of, the creation, 6 execution, and transmittal of the fraudulent Investor Disclosure letters;
- 7 aa. On or about November 9, 2012, VILLALOBOS falsely answered certain 8 questions under oath in a deposition in the civil action of People v. Villalobos et 9 al., (Los Angeles County Superior Court, SC 107850), regarding his financial 10 relationship with BUENROSTRO and his role in, and knowledge of, the creation, 11 execution, and transmittal of the fraudulent Investor Disclosure letters;
- 12 bb. On or about November 19, 2012, VILLALOBOS falsely answered certain 13 questions under oath in a deposition in the civil action of People v. Villalobos et 14 al., (Los Angeles County Superior Court, SC 107850), regarding his financial 15 relationship with BUENROSTRO and his role in, and knowledge of, the creation, 16 execution, and transmittal of the fraudulent Investor Disclosure letters;
- 17 cc. On or about June 6, 2013, VILLALOBOS falsely answered certain questions 18 under oath in a deposition in the civil action of Villalobos v. Apollo, et al., (United 19 States Bankruptcy Court, in and for the District of Nevada, No. 3:10-BK-52248-20 GWZ; 3:13-AP-5017-GWZ), regarding his financial relationship with 21 BUENROSTRO and his role in, and knowledge of, the creation, execution, and 22 transmittal of the fraudulent Investor Disclosure letters;
- 23 dd. On or about June 26, 2013, VILLALOBOS falsely answered certain questions 24 under oath in a deposition in the civil action of Villalobos v. Apollo, et al., (United 25 States Bankruptcy Court, in and for the District of Nevada, No. 3:10-BK-52248-
26 GWZ; 3:13-AP-5017-GWZ) regarding his financial relationship with 27 BUENROSTRO and his role in, and knowledge of, the creation, execution, and 28 transmittal of the fraudulent Investor Disclosure letters;
- ee. On or about December 10, 2013, VILLALOBOS falsely answered certain questions under oath in a deposition in the civil action of Villalobos v. Apollo, et al., (United States Bankruptcy Court, in and for the District of Nevada, No. 3:10-BK-52248-GWZ; 3:13-AP-5017-GWZ) regarding his financial relationship with BUENROSTRO and his role in, and knowledge of, the creation, execution, and transmittal of the fraudulent Investor Disclosure letters; and,
- ff. On or about December 11, 2013, VILLALOBOS falsely answered certain questions under oath in a deposition in the civil action of Villalobos v. Apollo, et al., (United States Bankruptcy Court, in and for the District of Nevada, No. 3:10-BK-52248-GWZ; 3:13-AP-5017-GWZ) regarding his financial relationship with BUENROSTRO and his role in, and knowledge of, the creation, execution, and transmittal of the fraudulent Investor Disclosure letters.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 371.

COUNT TWO: (18 U.S.C. § 1001(a)(1) – False Scheme Against the United States)

25. Paragraphs 1 through 19 and 21 through 24 are realleged and incorporated as if

1 set forth fully herein.

2 26. From in or about and between January 2008 and December 2013, both dates being 3 approximate and inclusive, in the Northern District of California, and elsewhere, the defendant,
4 ALFRED J. VILLALOBOS,
5 and others, including BUENROSTRO, did knowingly and willfully falsify, conceal, and cover up by 6 trick, scheme, or device material facts, specifically facts about the financial relationship between 7 VILLALOBOS and BUENROSTRO and how they created, executed, and transmitted the Investor 8 Disclosure letters relating to CalPERS' investment in Apollo-managed funds, in a matter within the 9 jurisdiction of the SEC, the USPIS, and the FBI, all agencies of the executive branch of the United 10 States.

11 All in violation of 18 U.S.C. § 1001(a)(1).

12 COUNT THREE: (18 U.S.C. § 1349 – Conspiracy to Commit Mail Fraud and Wire Fraud)

13 27. Paragraphs 1 through 19 and 21 through 24 are realleged and incorporated as if 14 set forth fully herein.

15 28. From in or about and between January 2008 and December 2013, both dates 16 being approximate and inclusive, in the Northern District of California and elsewhere, the defendant,

17 ALFRED J. VILLALOBOS,

18 did knowingly and intentionally attempt and conspire with other persons known and unknown to the
