ATTACHMENT B

I, Richard N. Orr, am a Special Agent with the Federal Bureau of Investigation ("FBI"). I have knowledge of the following facts based upon my investigation, review of reports and discussions with other law enforcement personnel and others. All statements herein are set forth in substance and in part:

1. Intelligence gathered from a variety of sources, including confidential informants, identifies defendant NARIK WILSON, a/k/a "Spaz," (hereafter "WILSON") as the leader of a set of the criminal street gang known as the Sex Money Murder Bloods in Newark. Further, law enforcement has received information that WILSON, and the members and associates of the Sex Money Murder Bloods set he leads, are engaged in a "street war" with a rival gang.
2. On or before April 28, 2011, law enforcement received information that WILSON and his cohorts were hiding weapons at a vacant apartment at a building on Martin Luther King Jr. Blvd, Newark (hereafter "MLK Apartment"). On or about April 28, 2011, a search was conducted at the MLK Apartment, yielding evidence, including but not limited to the following:
  - a. Inside the bedroom closet a green duffel bag containing:
    - i. One (1) 7.62x39mm Romarm Semi Automatic assault rifle, bearing serial number DR-5624-09-RO;
    - ii. One (1) Remington Model 870 Express Magnum Shotgun, bearing serial number C087921M;

    - vi. One (1) .40 caliber magazine;
    - vii. Approximately twenty-three (23) rounds of .40 caliber ammunition;
    - viii. Approximately three (3) rounds of .223 caliber ammunition;
    - ix. Approximately 122 rounds of 9mm ammunition;
    - x. One (1) Winchester box containing twenty-three (23) rounds of .45 caliber ammunition;
    - xi. Approximately fourteen (14) rounds of .45 caliber ammunition;
    - xii. One (1) round of 7.62x39mm ammunition;
    - xiii. Approximately eight (8) rounds of 12 gauge shotgun ammunition;
    - xiv. Approximately sixteen (16) rounds of .50 caliber ammunition;
    - xv. Approximately seventy-two (72) rounds of .22 caliber ammunition;
    - xvi. Approximately twenty-six (26) rounds of .44 caliber ammunition;
    - xvii. Black and clear plastic ammunition cartridge holders;
    - xviii. One .357 caliber shell casing;

- xix. Approximately 40 (40) small clear vials with small caps. Based on my training and experience, these are the vials that are typically used to distribute crack cocaine; and
  - xx. Blue mask.
- b. Inside the refrigerator: one bundle consisting of ten (10) individual doses of heroin
3. On or before July 18, 2011, law enforcement received information that WILSON and his cohorts were hiding weapons at a vacant apartment in a building on Spruce Street, Newark (hereafter "Spruce Apartment"). On or about July 18, 2011, law enforcement gained access to the Spruce Apartment. The Spruce Apartment was unoccupied but had clothing scattered on the floor. A search of the Spruce Apartment yielded evidence, including but not limited to the following:
- a. Recovered from the bedroom closet:
    - i. One (1) 12-gauge Winchester Model 1300 shotgun, bearing serial number L3303340, loaded with seven (7) live 12-gauge shotgun rounds; and
    - ii. One (1) 12-gauge Remington Model 870 Magnum shotgun, bearing serial number B627592M, loaded with three (3) live 12-gauge shotgun rounds.
  - b. Recovered from a blue duffel bag in the bedroom:
    - i. One (1) Romarm SA/Cugir Model SAR-1, 7.62x39mm assault rifle, bearing serial number S1-88166-03;
    - ii. One (1) Inland Division General Motors .30 caliber Model M-1 assault rifle, bearing serial number AA19396;
    - iii. One (1) 9mm Masterpiece Arms Model MPA30T semiautomatic rifle with a defaced serial number;
