

On October 5, 2000, the court found that any rights to the property listed in the forfeiture count of the indictment held by Frederick C. Brandau are forfeited. The court entered an additional preliminary order of forfeiture as to Brandau which will allow the government to move forward toward seizing and selling the property.