

The 1995 Bell helicopter, which had been located in Vermont, was sold at the conclusion of an auction on January 10, 2001, as a result of the efforts of the United States Marshals Service. The final sale price for the helicopter was $901,000. The appraised value for the helicopter was $809,000, resulting in a sale at 111.3% of appraised value.

The 1986 Augusta helicopter, which had been located in Florida, has not yet been sold. New advertisements and a new auction date is being established for this item.