Davenport Man Sentenced After Federal Drug Conviction

DAVENPORT, IA- On March 8, 2013, Leeandrel Quinn-Lake, age 35, from Davenport, Iowa, was sentenced by United States District Court Judge John A. Jarvey to 168 months imprisonment, announced United States Attorney Nicholas A. Klinefeldt. Quinn-Lake was also ordered to serve five years of supervised release and pay $100 towards the Crime Victims Fund. As part of the plea proceeding, Quinn-Lake admitted that from October 2007 to February 2009 he joined a conspiracy to distribute cocaine, obtained quantities of crack cocaine from multiple sources, and then distributed this cocaine in the Davenport area. Quinn-Lake admitted that he was responsible for between 840 grams to 2.8 kilograms of crack cocaine.

This case was investigated by the Drug Enforcement Administration, the Iowa Division of Narcotics Enforcement, the Davenport Police Department and the United States Marshals Service and was prosecuted by the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Iowa.
