Suspect Charged in Clinton, Iowa Bank Robbery

DAVENPORT, IA – On January 22, 2014, a federal grand jury returned an indictment charging Shane Roger Hoiland, age 21, with the February 25, 2013, bank robbery of the Clinton National Bank, announced United States Attorney Nicholas A. Klinefeldt. Hoiland made his initial appearance in the United States District Court for the Southern District of Iowa in Des Moines, Iowa, on March 13, 2014. He is being held in custody pending resolution of the case. Hoiland faces a maximum term of imprisonment of twenty years and a maximum fine of $250,000.

As in all criminal cases, the indictment is merely an allegation. The defendant is presumed to be innocent until proven guilty.

This case was investigated by the Federal Bureau of Investigation and the Clinton, Iowa, Police Department, and is being prosecuted by the United States Attorney's Office for the Southern District of Iowa.
