PLAIN DEALING MAN PLEADS GUILTY TO FAILURE TO REGISTER AS A SEX OFFENDER

SHREVEPORT, La. – United States Attorney Stephanie A. Finley announced today that Nobryan McGee, 24, of Plain Dealing, La., pled guilty on Wednesday to traveling across state lines and failing to register as a convicted sex offender. In March 2006, McGee was convicted in Benton, La. of simple rape, and in May of 2012, McGee relocated from Caddo Parish to Hot Springs, Ark., without properly registering as a sex offender in Louisiana and Arkansas.

Failure to Register as a Sex Offender and Traveling Across State Lines carries a maximum term of 10 years in prison, a $250,000 fine, or both. McGee will be sentenced by U.S. District Judge S. Maurice Hicks on May 15, 2013 at 1:30 p.m.

The case was investigated by Deputy United States Marshall T.C. Bloxom and is being prosecuted by Assistant United States Attorney Earl M. Campbell.
