Damien Victor and 12 co-defendants were indicted in December of 2009 on a variety of drug trafficking and firearms charges, along with the unlawful use of communication facilities and maintaining drug-involved premises. According to court documents, the 13 defendants involved in this drug trafficking organization were responsible for distributing kilograms of cocaine and cocaine base or "crack." Additionally, over $50,000.00 in U.S. currency, alleged to be drug proceeds, has been seized and will also be sought under the forfeiture count.

The other eleven defendants have previously pled guilty, with one remaining defendant scheduled for trial on February 6, 2012. The sentencing dates have not yet been scheduled.
