OCDETF is a joint federal, state and local cooperative approach to combat drug trafficking and is the nation’s primary tool for disrupting and dismantling major drug trafficking organizations, targeting national and regional level drug trafficking organizations and coordinating the necessary law enforcement entities and resources to disrupt or dismantle the targeted criminal organization and seize their assets.

U.S. Attorney Finley stated: “Protecting communities from the scourge of illegal drugs and drug trafficking is a core obligation of this office and federal law enforcement. Illegal narcotics destroy the potential in many individuals to become contributing members of our society and the fabric of communities. We will continue, with our state and local partners, to vigorously enforce federal narcotics and firearms laws.”

An indictment is merely an accusation and a defendant is presumed innocent unless and until proven guilty.

This case was investigated by agents and officers of the U. S. Drug Enforcement Administration, FBI Violent Crimes Task Force, Alcohol, Tobacco, Firearms & Explosives, U. S. Marshall Service, Louisiana State Police, Shreveport Police Department, Caddo Parish Sheriff’s Office, and Bossier City Police Department. The case is being prosecuted by Assistant U. S. Attorney James G. Cowles, Jr.
