DUNKIRK MAN INDICTED FOR PRODUCING CHILD PORNOGRAPHY AND ON OTHER RELATED CHARGES

BUFFALO, N.Y.-- U.S. Attorney William J. Hochul, Jr. announced today that a federal grand jury in Buffalo has returned a nine-count Indictment charging Roger S. "Scotti" Luczkowiak, 31, of Dunkirk, N.Y., with production of child pornography, distribution, receipt, and possession of child pornography. Production of child pornography carries a mandatory minimum term of 15 years in prison and a maximum of 30 years, a $250,000 fine or both.

Assistant U.S. Attorney Aaron J. Mango, who is handling the case, stated that according to the Indictment, the Dunkirk Police seized a computer from the defendant's residence on June 1, 2011. A forensic analysis of the computer found multiple images and videos of child pornography, including two videos that appeared to be produced by the defendant at his home with a six year old victim. Some of the images included the victim and the defendant.

The defendant has been in custody since his arrest in August 2011. Luczkowiak will be arraigned on the Indictment on December 29, 2011 at 9:30 a.m., before Magistrate Judge Jeremiah J. McCarthy.

This case was brought as part of Project Safe Childhood, a nationwide initiative to combat the growing epidemic of child sexual exploitation and abuse launched in May 2006 by the Department of Justice. Led by United States Attorneys' Offices and the Criminal Division's Child Exploitation and Obscenity Section (CEOS), Project Safe Childhood marshals federal, state and local resources to better locate, apprehend and prosecute individuals who exploit children via the Internet, as well as to identify and rescue victims. For more information about Project Safe Childhood, please visit www.projectsafchildhood.gov.

The Indictment is the culmination of an investigation on the part of Special Agents of the U.S. Department of Homeland Security - Homeland Security Investigations, under the direction of James C. Spero, Special Agent-In-Charge; the Dunkirk Police Department, under the direction of Chief David C. Ortolano, and the New York State Police Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force, under the direction of Captain Frank A. Pace. Additional assistance was provided by the Western New York Regional Computer Forensics Laboratory, which conducted the forensic analysis of the defendant's computer.

The fact that a defendant has been charged with a crime is merely an accusation and the defendant is presumed innocent until and unless proven guilty.
