WHAT, AND WHEN?

Initial Reporting Requirements	The Initial Reporting Requirements are due immediately after a chapter 11 case has been filed but not later than the date of the Initial Debtor Interview. Quick Tip: Reduce time spent in the Initial Debtor Interview (see next) by completing the Initial Reporting Requirements before the interview. Either mail the documents in time for the U.S. Trustee to receive them before the interview, or bring them to the interview.
Initial Debtor Interview	An Initial Debtor Interview with the U.S. Trustee has been scheduled for this case (see enclosed cover letter for date and time). The U.S. Trustee will use this informal meeting as an opportunity to become familiar with the debtor's business and to explain the debtor's financial reporting obligations while in chapter 11. Quick Tip: Review the U.S. Trustee's Operating Guidelines and reporting forms before attending the Initial Debtor Interview. Then use the interview as an opportunity to find out how the debtor's existing accounting system can be used to fulfill the chapter 11 reporting obligations.
Section 341(a) Meeting ("first meeting of creditors")	The Bankruptcy Code requires the debtor, through a member of its senior management personnel, to attend a meeting of creditors and to submit to an examination under oath. The U.S. Trustee presides at the meeting, which is normally held within the first 40 days after filing chapter 11. The meeting gives creditors and the U.S. Trustee an opportunity to question the debtor, with debtor's attorney present, about its business, its assets and liabilities, and its plans for reorganization. Quick Tip: Have available for reference at the meeting of creditors the financial statements and tax returns for the two years preceding the filing. 11 U.S.C. § 521.
Monthly Financial Reports	Local Bankruptcy Rule 2015-1(a) requires the debtor to file a financial report for each calendar month. A report is due on the 14th day of the subsequent month. Quick Tip: Having difficulty with the first monthly report? Call the U.S. Trustee's office and ask for the Bankruptcy Analyst assigned to this case. (Note: The U.S. Trustee requires a written authorization from debtor's counsel before staff are permitted to discuss administrative matters with the debtor. The U.S. Trustee usually requests such authorization from counsel during the Initial Debtor Interview.)
Statutory Fees	For the duration of a chapter 11 case, the debtor is required to pay a statutory fee to the U.S. Trustee for each partial or full calendar quarter. A fee payment is due for the preceding calendar quarter on each of these dates: April 30, July 31, October 31, and January 31. (See attached Statutory Fee Schedule and Notice.) Quick Tip: Include the statutory fee in the debtor's operating budget. Failure to pay the fee is cause for conversion or dismissal of the case.
