

Notice to New Tax Division Individuals Affected by Confidential Financial Disclosure Requirements

Tax Division attorneys are required to file a confidential disclosure report (OGE Form 450) upon joining the Division to ensure against any potential or actual conflicts of interest. If you joined the Division within 30 days of leaving another position for which you filed a confidential financial report, you may submit a copy of that report in lieu of preparing a filing a new entrant report. Reports should be filed with your Section Chief. If you have good cause for not being able to complete your report within 30 days of your receipt of this notice, you may seek an extension of time from Eileen Shatz, the Tax Division's Ethics Officer.

The current version of the form is attached. It also can be found at http://taxnet/Ethics/oge450 financial disclosure 12-2011.pdf

Your report will be reviewed for possible conflicts by your Section or Office Chief ("reviewing official") and will be retained in a secure location by the reviewing official for one year. The form is for official use within the Department only. The report will not be shown to, nor the contents discussed with, anyone who does not have a specific need to know the information. Typically, the only persons with such a need are persons making work assignments. Regulations require that the reports be retained within the Department for six years. After the first year, at which time another annual report will be required, the previous years' reports will be stored in a secure location in the Tax Division's Human Resources Office.

Please be sure to read the instructions before completing the form. When listing a mutual fund, please list each specific fund within a family of funds in which you have an investment, i.e., Vanguard-Windsor II.

If you have any questions regarding the confidential financial form process, please contact Eileen Shatz, the Division's Ethics Officer, by email or by phone at 7-6419.

CONFIDENTIAL FINANCIAL DISCLOSURE REPORT

Executive Branch

Why Must I File?

The duties and responsibilities of your position require you to file the Confidential Financial Disclosure Report to avoid involvement in a real or apparent conflict of interest. The purpose of this report is to assist employees and their agencies in avoiding conflicts between official duties and private financial interests or affiliations. The information you provide will only be used for legitimate purposes, and will not be disclosed to any requesting person unless authorized by law. (See the Privacy Act Statement at the bottom of this page.) Please ensure that the information you provide is complete and accurate.

When Must I File?

New Entrants: The report is due within 30 days of your assuming a position designated for filing, unless your agency requests the report earlier or your agency grants you a filing extension.

Annual Filers: The report is due no later than February 15, unless your agency grants you a filing extension.

What is the Reporting Period?

New Entrants: Report the required information for the 12 months preceding your filing of this form.

Annual Filers: Report the required information for the preceding calendar year (January 1 – December 31).

PENALTIES

Falsification of information or failure to file or report information required to be reported may subject you to disciplinary action by your employing agency or other authority. Knowing and willful falsification of information required to be reported may also subject you to criminal prosecution.

Privacy Act Statement

Title I of the Ethics in Government Act of 1978 (5 U.S.C. App.), Executive Order 12674 (as modified by Executive Order 12731), and 5 CFR Part 2634, Subpart I, of the Office of Government Ethics regulations require the reporting of this information. The primary use of the information on this form is for review by Government officials of your agency, to determine compliance with applicable Federal conflict of interest laws and regulations. Additional disclosures of the information on this report may be made: (1) to a Federal, State, or local law enforcement agency if the disclosing agency becomes aware of a violation or potential violation of law or regulation; (2) to a court or party in a court or Federal administrative proceeding if the Government is a party or in order to comply with a judge-issued subpoena; (3) to a source when necessary to obtain information relevant to a conflict of interest investigation or decision; (4) to the National Archives and Records Administration or the General Services Administration in records management inspections; (5) to the Office of Management and Budget during legislative coordination on private relief legislation; (6) to the Department of Justice or in certain legal proceedings when the disclosing agency, and employee of the disclosing agency, or the United States is a party to litigation or has an interest in the litigation and the use of such records is deemed relevant and necessary to the litigation; (7) to reviewing officials in a new office, department or agency when an employee transfers from one covered position to another, (8) to a Member of Congress or a congressional office in response to an inquiry made on behalf of an individual who is the subject of the record, and (9) to contractors and other non-Government employees working for the Federal Government to accomplish a function related to an OGE Governmentwide system of records. This confidential report will not be disclosed to any requesting person unless authorized by law. See also the OGE/GOVT-2 executive branchwide Privacy Act system of records.

Public Burden Information

It is estimated that completing this form, including reviewing the instructions and gathering the data needed, takes an average of one hour. No person is required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number as printed in the top right-hand corner of the first page of this form. Send comments regarding the burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to: Deputy Director for Administration and Information Management, U.S. Office of Government Ethics, Suite 500, 1201 New York Avenue, NW, Washington, DC 20005-3917. Do not send your completed OGE Form 450 to this address.
