- YES (Please indicate the facility type.)
 - Corrections
 - Residential treatment
 - Community-based facilities (e.g., transitional living facility)
- NO (If no, skip questions 13 and 14.)

13. If the facility will be used for detention, for residential treatment, and for sentenced individuals, it is important to look at the total number of individuals (adult and juvenile) who are arrested and convicted and determine which of the individuals were or would have been placed in the correctional facility or treatment facility if one existed. To begin the process, please complete the Daily Case Record (found at the end of this section) for all target population cases entering the criminal justice system from October 1, 2023, through September 30, 2024. (For projects involving a detention or residential treatment component only.)

- If the target population to be served includes adult arrestees, please provide the number of individuals for the following dispositions (what happened to the person):
 - Released with charge
 - Protective custody/intoxicated
 - Released pending disposition
 - Released on bail or personal recognizance bond
 - Detained pending disposition/sentencing
- If the target population to be served includes adult sentenced individuals, please provide the number of individuals for the following dispositions:
 - Transferred to federal custody
 - Released with fine or dismissed
 - Detained
 - Placed under community supervision
- If the target population to be served includes juvenile arrestees, please provide the number of individuals for the following dispositions:
 - Released without charge
 - Released pending disposition
 - Detained pending disposition/placed with state social services

 - Detained/placed with state social services
 - Placed under community supervision

14. Provide a summary of program spaces for the proposed project. (For projects involving a detention or residential treatment component only.)

- The number of individuals to be served
- Characteristics of the individuals to be served (pretrial/convicted, offenses, adult/juvenile, male/female, age) (Please describe in 100 words or less.)
- Average length of time individuals will stay in the facility
- Programming activities for individuals while in the facility and following release (education, job training, substance use assessment and treatment, health and mental health screening and care, case management, aftercare services, etc.) (Please describe in 200 words or less.)
- Total number of facility beds
- What was the average daily population (this number is derived by the sum of individuals housed in jail each day for a year, divided by the number of days in the year) for the current facility during the period of October 1, 2023–September 30, 2024? (For detention projects only.)
- Describe as fully as possible any ways in which these data may not accurately reflect historical patterns of admission and length of stay in the Tribe's system. Are there any obvious reasons for these differences, such as new laws regulating crimes to be prosecuted on the reservation (if applicable)? (For detention projects only.) (Please describe in 100 words or less.)
