

Directions and Security for the Juneau U.S. District Courthouse

Address:

Federal Building and U.S. Courthouse

101 12th Ave,

Fairbanks, Alaska, 99701

Please note: this is the FEDERAL Courthouse, not the state courthouse

Parking:

-Free visitor parking is available either in the front of the building or at the side of the building

Security:

-There are 100% ID checks to enter the federal building. All visitors must show a current and valid photo ID issued by a State or Federal agency.

--All visitors are required to pass through 2 security checkpoints (one downstairs and one upstairs). For both, you will walk through a magnetometer and all bags, briefcases, purses, parcels, and electronic devices will be screened by an x-ray machine. If you set off the magnetometer as you walk through it, you may be asked to remove your belt, watch, or jewelry.

-Prohibited items include firearm, explosive materials, drug paraphernalia, knives (greater than 2.5 inches), narcotics, other items deemed dangerous, illegal, or hazardous.

-You can bring cellphones and other electronic devices such as tablets, iPad, etc. with you to the courthouse. If you bring them with you into the courtroom, they MUST BE ON SILENT OR TURNED OFF.

-Inside the courtroom, the taking of pictures or videos is STRICTLY PROHIBITED AND ENFORCED

-After the first security checkpoint in the main lobby, take the elevators to the 3rd floor. Exit the elevators and to the left there will be the Court Security Officers and the second security checkpoint. After this security point, the courtroom will be down the hallway on the left.

-The Fairbanks US Attorney's Office is also located on the 3rd floor, Room 310. After passing through security on this floor, take the hallway to the right.

Other Considerations:

-Courtrooms are frequently cool, it is recommended to bring a sweater or light jacket

-There is no dining in the building, though there are vending machines on the second floor. Within a five-minute walk from the Courthouse there are a few eating options.

-With permission of the court staff, drinks may be allowed in the courtroom, but food is NOT allowed in the courtroom.

-There are restrooms located on each floor of the courthouse.

-If there are any other questions you have, please contact the Victim Assistance Specialist on your case or the Fact-Witness Coordinator
