

VICTIM IMPACT STATEMENT

United States vs. Barragan-Flores et al CR#: CR-16-00184

The Judge in this case is interested in knowing the personal impact this crime has had on you and/or your family. It would be helpful if you would complete this voluntary questionnaire and/or write a letter stating the personal, physical, emotional, and/or financial impact this crime has had on you and/or your family. Keep in mind, you may also attend the scheduled court hearing to provide a victim impact statement in person.

Name of victim: _____

Name of respondent if other than victim: _____

Relationship to victim: _____

Everyone experiences and expresses feelings and emotions differently when they have gone through a traumatic event. People may be overcome with disbelief, depression, anxiety, fear, anger, guilt, feeling unsafe, which are all normal feelings. Have you or your family experienced any of these feelings or other feelings due to this crime?

This image shows a blank sheet of white paper with horizontal ruling lines. The lines are evenly spaced and extend across the width of the page. There are no margins, text, or other markings on the paper.

Please list your financial losses from this crime and attach any receipts or other records whenever possible. Please include for example: bank fees, late fees, loss of wages, transportation, child care, replacement purchases, and any other miscellaneous expenses pertaining to this case.

The Court may require receipts and/or documentation.

Keeping in mind there are sentencing guidelines and laws, what sentence do you feel the defendant should receive?

Other information you would like the Judge to know?

Print Name

Signature

Date

Please return within 10 days of receipt
If you need more time, please contact your Victim Witness Specialist

United States Attorney's Office
Victim Witness Program
405 W. Congress Street, Suite 4800
Tucson, Arizona 85701

The purpose and use of this victim impact statement is to obtain information which will enable the United States Attorney's Office to assess victims' needs, provide input to the Assistant United States Attorney, obtain court-ordered restitution and assist the United States Probation Office in preparing the Victim Impact Statement. There is no statutory authority for the collection of this information. This information is supplied on a voluntary basis by victims of crime. Under criminal law and procedures, all information contained in your victim impact statement must be disclosed to the defense attorney and defendant. If you have any questions or need assistance in completing your victim impact statement, please contact your Victim Witness Specialist.