Title 18 U.S.C. §371 and 2314	Conspiracy to Transport Stolen Property	10/21/21	1 of #22cr171-5

The sentence is imposed pursuant to the Sentencing Reform Act of 1984.

IMPRISONMENT

You hereby are committed to the custody of the United States Bureau of Prisons to be imprisoned for a total term of 37 months on Count One of case number 3:21-cr-00190-OAW, and 37 months on Count One of case number 22-cr-00171-OAW-5, to run concurrently.

SUPERVISED RELEASE

Upon release from imprisonment, you shall be on supervised release for a term of 36 months on Count One of case number 3:21-cr-00190-OAW, and 36 months on Count One of case number 22-cr-00171-OAW-5, to run concurrently.

The Mandatory and Standard Conditions of Supervised Release as attached, are imposed. In addition, the following Special Conditions are imposed:

1. You must participate in an educational and/or vocational services program and follow the rules and regulations of that program. Such programs may include, but are not limited to, job readiness training and skills development.

DEFENDANT: THEODORE ROOSEVELT OWENS
CASE NUMBER:3:21-CR-00190-OAW & 3:22-CR-00171-OAW-5

2. You must submit your person, residence, office, or vehicle to a search conducted by a United States Probation Officer at a reasonable time and in a reasonable manner, based upon reasonable suspicion of contraband or evidence of a violation of a condition of release; failure to submit to a search may be grounds for revocation; you must inform any other residents that the premises may be subject to searches pursuant to this condition.
3. You must participate in a program recommended by the Probation Office and approved by the court for in-patient or out-patient substance abuse treatment and testing. You must follow the rules and regulations of that program. The probation officer will supervise your participation in the program. You must pay all or a portion of costs associated with treatment based on your ability to pay as recommended by the probation officer and approved by the court.
4. You must participate in a program recommended by the Probation Office and approved by the court for mental health treatment. You must follow the rules and regulations of that program. The probation officer, in consultation with the treatment provider, will supervise your participation in the program. You must pay all or a portion of the costs associated with treatment based on your ability to pay as recommended by the probation officer and approved by the court. You must also take any prescribed medications as prescribed.

CRIMINAL MONETARY PENALTIES

The defendant must pay the total criminal monetary penalties under the schedule of payments as follows:

Special Assessment: $200.00

Fine: $0

Restitution: $0

It is further ordered that you will notify the United States Attorney for this district within 30 days of any change of name, residence or mailing address until all fines, restitution, costs and special assessments imposed by this judgment are paid.

CASE NUMBER:3:21-CR-00190-OAW & 3:22-CR-00171-OAW-5CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISED RELEASE*In addition to the Standard Conditions listed below, the following indicated (■) Mandatory Conditions are imposed:*MANDATORY CONDITIONS

- (1) You must not commit another federal, state or local crime.
- (2) You must not unlawfully possess a controlled substance.
- (3) You must refrain from any unlawful use of a controlled substance. You must submit to one drug test within 15 days of release from imprisonment and at least two periodic drug tests thereafter, as determined by the court.
 - ☐ The above drug testing condition is suspended, based on the court's determination that you pose a low risk of future substance abuse. (check if applicable)
- (4) ☐ You must make restitution in accordance with 18 U.S.C. §§ 3663 and 3663A or any other statute authorizing a sentence of restitution. (check if applicable)
- (5) ■ You must cooperate in the collection of DNA as directed by the probation officer. (check if applicable)
- (6) ☐ You must comply with the requirements of the Sex Offender Registration and Notification Act (34 U.S.C. § 20901, et seq.) as directed by the probation officer, the Bureau of Prisons, or any state sex offender registration agency in the location where you reside, work, are a student, or were convicted of a qualifying offense. (check if applicable)
- (7) ☐ You must participate in an approved program for domestic violence. (check if applicable)

STANDARD CONDITIONS

As part of your supervised release, you must comply with the following standard conditions of supervision. These conditions are imposed because they establish the basic expectations for your behavior while on supervision and identify the minimum tools needed by probation officers to keep informed, report to the court about, and bring about improvements in your conduct and condition.

- (1) You must report to the probation office in the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside within 72 hours of your release from imprisonment unless the probation officer instructs you to report to a different probation office or within a different time frame.
- (2) After initially reporting to the probation office, you will receive instructions from the court or the probation officer about how and when you must report to the probation officer, and you must report to the probation officer as instructed.
- (3) You must not knowingly leave the federal judicial district where you are authorized to reside without first getting permission from the court or the probation officer.
- (4) You must answer truthfully the questions asked by your probation officer.
- (5) You must live at a place approved by the probation officer. If you plan to change where you live or anything about your living arrangements (such as the people you live with), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- (6) You must allow the probation officer to visit you at any time at your home or elsewhere, and you must permit the probation officer to take any items prohibited by the conditions of your supervision that he or she observes in plain view.
- (7) You must work full time (at least 30 hours per week) at a lawful type of employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you do not have full-time employment you must try to find full-time employment, unless the probation officer excuses you from doing so. If you plan to change where you work or anything about your work (such as your position or your job responsibilities), you must notify the probation officer at least 10 days before the change. If notifying the probation officer at least 10 days in advance is not possible due to unanticipated circumstances, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours of becoming aware of a change or expected change.
- (8) You must not communicate or interact with someone you know is engaged in criminal activity. If you know someone has been convicted of a felony, you must not knowingly communicate or interact with that person without first getting the permission of the probation officer.
- (9) If you are arrested or questioned by a law enforcement officer, you must notify the probation officer within 72 hours.
- (10) You must not own, possess, or have access to a firearm, ammunition, destructive device, or dangerous weapon (i.e., anything that was designed, or was modified for, the specific purpose of causing bodily injury or death to another person such as nunchakus or tasers).
- (11) You must not act or make any agreement with a law enforcement agency to act as a confidential human source or informant without first getting the permission of the court.
- (12) You must follow the instructions of the probation officer related to the conditions of supervision.
