

May 30, 2025 – Status Update

On May 29, 2025, the government and the defense jointly filed a status report in which they informed the court about their position on when a trial should take place and some of the matters that may require the Court's attention prior to that date. In that report, the parties jointly recommended that trial be set to begin in late April 2026. A copy of that filing is available on our website, <https://www.justice.gov/usao-dc/attack-pan-am-flight-103>.

The next hearing in the case remains a status conference set for June 5, 2025, at 11:00 a.m. U.S. Eastern Time, in Courtroom 24A of the United States District Court for the District of Columbia. We expect that at that hearing, the court will set a trial date. We will provide you with an update as soon as we can after that hearing.
