

Case Status May 30, 2018

Recently, the U.S. Supreme Court denied the cert petition filed by three of the four defendants. Those three defendants--Slough, Heard, and Liberty--have exhausted their appeals; their guilty verdicts remain intact; and the only thing remaining for them is to be resentenced. We will post the date for the resentencing.

The U.S. v. Nicholas Slatten retrial is set to begin in front of Judge Royce C. Lamberth on Monday, June 18, 2018.

Please check this website monthly for new updates.