Nevertheless, the rights of a third party with regard to the articles aforesaid shall be duly respected.

ARTICLE XI.

The person provisionally arrested shall be released, unless within three months from the date of arrest in Iraq, or from the date of commitment in the United States of America, the formal requisition for surrender with the documentary proofs hereinafter prescribed be made as aforesaid.

For the purpose of this Treaty, judgment in default shall not be considered as conviction but the person so convicted may be considered merely as charged with the crime.

ARTICLE XII

ARTICLE XIII

This Treaty shall be ratified by the High Contracting Parties in accordance with their respective constitutional methods and shall take effect from the day of the exchange of the ratifications thereof; but either High Contracting Party may at any time terminate the Treaty on giving to the other six months' notice of its intention to do so.

In witness whereof the respective Plenipotentiaries have signed this Treaty, and have hereunto affixed their seals.

Done in duplicate in Arabic and English, of which in the case of divergence, the English text shall prevail, at Baghdad this seventh day of June, 1934 corresponding with the twenty-fourth day of Safar, 1353 Hijrah.

Arrest warrants issued by Iraqi courts in accordance to the provisions of the legal articles mentioned in the Iraqi statute number 111, for the year 1969 Amended, stay in effect (They don't become invalid due to a statute of limitations). This is according to legal article 94/A of the criminal procedure code (23) for the year 1971 which states (The arrest warrant is valid in all areas of Iraq and must be executed by anyone to whom it is sent. It remains current until it has been executed or cancelled by the party issuing it or by a higher authority with legal right to do so).

Pursuant to the Iraqi Penal Code 111 for the year 1969 Amended, there is no statute of limitations for the charge of murder and the warrant is in no way time barred.

Clarification of an investigation process

Murder, according to the provisions of article 406/1/A in the Iraqi Penal Code, is one of the premeditated crimes for which the Iraqi Penal Code stipulated the presence of criminal intent according to the Iraqi Penal Code number 111 for the year 1969 Amended, which states:

Article: (33)

(1) Criminal intent is the existence in the mind of the offender of an intention to commit the criminal act with a view to realizing the consequence of the offence that has occurred or any other criminal consequence.

(2) Intent maybe simple or premeditated.

(3) Premeditation is the resolute contemplation of the commission of an offence before it is committed and is far removed from an outburst of jealous rage or mental turmoil.

(4) Premeditation can be established whether or not the intent of the offender is directed towards a specific person or merely a person he has met or encountered or whether the intent is dependent on something happening or on some condition.

This was explained for the investigative process.

- (2) Any person who participates in the commission of an offence that consists of a number of acts and who willfully carries out one of those acts during the commission of that offence.
- (3) Any person who incites another in any way to commit an act contributing to an offence if that person is not in any way criminally liable for the offence.

Article 48

The following are considered to be accessories to an offence:

- (1) Any person who incites another to commit an offence and that offence is committed on the basis of such incitement.
- (2) Any person who conspires with others to commit an offence and that offence is committed on the basis of such conspiracy.
- (3) Any person who knowingly supplies the principal to an offence with a weapon, instrument or anything else to commit an offence or deliberately assists him in any other way to carry out those acts for which he has received assistance.

Article 49

An accessory is considered to be a principal to an offence under the provisions of Article 48, if he is present during the commission of that offence or any act contributing to that offence.

Article 50

- (1) Any person who participates in the commission of an offence as principal or accessory is punishable by the penalty prescribed for that offence unless otherwise stipulated by law.
  - (2) An accessory is punishable by the penalty prescribed by law, even though the principal is not punishable due to lack of criminal intent on his part or for other circumstances in respect of him.

Intelligence report about the accused fugitive (Omar Abdulsattar Ameen Husayn)

Peace, mercy and blessings of God,

Implementation of the decision by the investigative judge of the Central Inquiry Court on 4/25/2018, paragraph (4) consists of the preparation of an intelligence report regarding (Omar Abdulsattar Ameen Husayn al-Rawi). Through the inspection of our Agency's database, it was revealed that the above mentioned individual was born in 1973, the name of his mother is Fatimah Sakin Abdullatif. He lives in the province of Al-Anbar Rawah District - village of Al-Sarhaniyah. He has ten brothers and three sisters. He works in the trade of building material supplies. He also has a shopping centers in the Rawah District. In 2004, he worked with terrorist cells and he was one of the founders of al-Tawhid Wa al-Jihad (Al-Qa'ida Organization) and one of the close associates of the terrorist, Abu-Mus'ab al-Zarqawi. At that time, channels of finance were opened to him and became the financial officer for the Al-Qa'idah Organization in Al-Anbar, in addition to taking control over the military leadership in all western areas of Al-Qa'im and Rawah. He committed the most heinous crimes against the citizens and security forces at that time. And in 2006 he launched an armed attack against the army headquarters in Al-Karablah Area in Al-Qa'im, where he took soldiers as prisoners and executed them at the same time. And in the same year, he launched an armed attack against the army headquarters where several soldiers were killed. And in 2007, the terrorist, (Omar Abdulsattar Ameen) worked under the Emir for Al-Qa'idah in Al-Anbar, the terrorist (Ghassan Muhammad Ameen al-Rawi) who is the paternal cousin for the terrorist (Omar Abdulsattar). All of his brothers followed him without exception. But the one brother that was more brutal than all and earned the rank of a security Emir, was the terrorist (Bilal Abdulsattar). And on 6/22/2014 and after terrorist groups seized control over the District of Rawah, the terrorist (Omar Abdulsattar) and other members of his terrorist group, went to the home of (Ihsan Abdulhafiz) where he shot him to death in front of his house which is located in the District of Rawah.
