SUPERSEDING INDICTMENT

THE GRAND JURY CHARGES THAT:

1. From at least in or about 2009 continuing through in or about May 2014, in Allentown and Reading, in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania, and elsewhere, defendant conspired and agreed together, and with others known and unknown to the grand jury, to knowingly recruit, entice, harbor, transport, provide, obtain and maintain by any means, in or affecting interstate commerce, women, knowing and in reckless disregard of the fact that force, threats of force, fraud, and coercion would be used to cause women to engage in commercial sex acts.

MANNER AND MEANS

It was part of the conspiracy that:

2. Defendant CORDERRO CODY, and Person #1, known to the Grand Jury, recruited women to perform commercial sex acts as part of CODY's "program;" his illegal commercial sex trafficking operation.

3. Defendant CORDERRO CODY used the website "backpage.com" to advertise women for commercial sex acts.

4. Defendant CORDERRO CODY took photographs of women to place in advertisements on "backpage.com."

5. "Johns" (men wanting to have sex with the recruited women) obtained commercial sex acts from the recruited women by calling a mobile telephone number placed in the backpage.com website advertisement and meeting the women at hotels designated and paid for by defendant CORDERRO CODY in and around Allentown, Reading, Scranton, and Denver, Pennsylvania, and other locations including in New Jersey, New York, Maryland.

6. Defendant CORDERRO CODY received and kept most of the proceeds generated by the women engaging in commercial sex acts.

7. Defendant CORDERRO CODY used physical force and threats of physical force against women to cause or attempt to cause them to continue performing commercial sex acts.

8. Person #2, a taxi cab driver, known to the Grand Jury, transported women for commercial sex acts both intrastate and interstate, per defendant CORDERRO CODY's direction.

9. Defendant CORDERRO CODY used vehicles, public roadways, hotels, telephones and the Internet to facilitate commercial sex acts.

OVERT ACTS

In furtherance of the conspiracy and to accomplish its object, defendant CORDERRO CODY committed the following overt acts, among others, in the Eastern District of Pennsylvania:
