

UNITED STATES ATTORNEY CARMEN M. ORTIZ
INVITES YOU TO A PUBLIC FORUM

for

Enhancing Respect and Mutual Understanding

WHEN

Monday, November 28, 2016
6:00PM – 8:00 PM

WHERE

American International College
Karen Sprague Cultural Arts Center
Griswold Lobby and the West Wing
1000 State Street, Springfield, MA.

WHY PARTICIPATE

The forum will provide an opportunity to exchange perspectives and discuss key issues that challenge respectful relationships, particularly in western Massachusetts. The forum will also challenge participants to brainstorm solutions to issues and be the voices of change.

Your engagement is important!

WHO SHOULD ATTEND

Neighbors, Students, Parents, Teachers, Law Enforcement, Advocacy Groups, Youth Serving Organizations, Faith-based Organization Representatives, Service Providers, Federal, State and Local Government and Others

Sponsored by

The United States Attorney's Office ~ American International College Campus Police
BRIDGES ~ Critical Connections ~ Karuna Center for Peacebuilding

BRIDGES: Building Respect in Diverse Groups to Enhance Sensitivity is a collaborative effort among various community representatives, and various federal, state and local government agencies. www.mabridges.org