INFORMATION

At all times relevant to this Information:

General Allegations

1. Defendant Raul Fernandez Vicioso (FERNANDEZ VICIOSO) was a resident of Fitchburg, Massachusetts.
2. El Primo Restaurant was located in Leominster, Massachusetts.

3. The United States Department of Agriculture (USDA), Food and Nutrition Service (FNS), a United States department and agency, sponsored, supervised, funded, and oversaw the Supplemental Nutrition Assistance Program (SNAP), a federal government program formerly known as the Food Stamp Program.

4. SNAP is a federal benefit program intended to assist low-income individuals and families purchase food. Congress passed SNAP to “promote the general welfare, to safeguard the health and well-being of the nation’s population by raising levels of nutrition among low-income households.” 7 U.S.C. § 2011.

5. Under SNAP, eligible individuals receive credits to buy food from retail food stores that participate in SNAP by means of an electronic benefit transfer (EBT) card, which is used like a debit or credit card. Critically, SNAP benefits can only be used by authorized users to purchase foodstuffs.

6. An individual applicant may add eligible family members to an application, which permits those individuals also to use the EBT card and which increases the benefits disbursed to that household. Nonfood items, such as gasoline, medicines, alcohol, and cigarettes, are not eligible for purchase using SNAP funds.

7. The USDA administers SNAP nationally. Individuals or families in need of SNAP benefits may apply for assistance through State agencies.

8. In Rhode Island, SNAP benefits are administered to recipients by the Rhode Island Department of Human Services (RI DHS) in accordance with federal requirements. RI DHS is responsible for determining SNAP eligibility and authorizing benefits for low-income individuals in need.

9. To qualify for SNAP in Rhode Island, the applicant must be a resident of Rhode Island, meet the financial eligibility requirements, and be a United States citizen or an eligible non-citizen, such as Lawful Permanent Resident (LPR) who has earned, or can be credited with, 40 quarters of work. An applicant for SNAP benefits must also provide proof of their identity, that is, the applicant must be the person who they claim to be. Among other things, an applicant must also furnish a Social Security number or provide proof that the applicant has applied for one.

10. An applicant for SNAP benefits must provide complete and accurate information both at the time of application and on an ongoing basis for RI DHS to properly assess initial and continued eligibility for benefits.

11. In Massachusetts, SNAP benefits are administered to recipients by the Massachusetts Department of Transitional Assistance (MA DTA) in accordance with federal requirements. MA DTA is responsible for determining SNAP eligibility and authorizing benefits for low-income individuals in need.

12. Victims 1 through 3 are individuals whose identities were fraudulently utilized by FERNANDEZ and his coconspirators to apply for SNAP benefits in Massachusetts and/or Rhode Island. There are approximately 115 other victims whose identities were similarly utilized.

13. The Coronavirus Aid, Relief and Economic Security Act (the “CARES Act”) created a new temporary federal unemployment insurance program called Pandemic Unemployment Assistance (PUA).

14. The Massachusetts Department of Unemployment Assistance administered and managed the PUA program in Massachusetts.

15. Eligible Massachusetts residents could apply for PUA benefits through an online portal by providing personally identifiable information (PII), including their first and last name, Social Security number (SSN), date of birth, residential and mailing addresses, and bank account information.

16. Other states, such as New York, Ohio, Pennsylvania and Nevada have similar agencies to administer and manage PUA programs and procedures for eligible residents to apply for PUA benefits.
