v.

LISA C. GLASS

CASE NO. 3:16-cr-11-J-32MCR
Ct. 1: 18 U.S.C. § 1591
Forfeiture: 18 U.S.C. § 1594

INDICTMENT

The Grand Jury charges:

COUNT ONE

Between in or about May, 2015, through in or about September, 2015, in Clay and Duval Counties, in the Middle District of Florida, and elsewhere, the defendant,

LISA C. GLASS,

in and affecting interstate commerce, did knowingly recruit, entice, harbor, transport, provide, obtain, advertise, maintain, patronize, and solicit by any means a person, that is a minor female that had not attained the age of 18 years and whose initials are H.G., while knowing and in reckless disregard of the fact that H.G. had not attained the age of 18 years and would be caused to engage in a commercial sex act.

All in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1591.

FORFEITURE

1. The allegations contained in Counts One of this Indictment are hereby realleged and incorporated by reference for the purpose of alleging forfeitures pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 1594.

2. Upon conviction of a violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 1591, the defendant shall forfeit to the United States, pursuant to Title 18, United States Code, Section 1594, (1) any property, real or personal, used or intended to be used to commit or to facilitate the commission of the offense; and (2) any property, real or personal, constituting or derived from, any proceeds obtained, directly or indirectly, as a result of the offense.

3. If any of the property described above, as a result of any act or omission of the defendant:

- a. cannot be located upon the exercise of due diligence;
- b. has been transferred or sold to, or deposited with, a third party;
- c. has been placed beyond the jurisdiction of the court;
- d. has been substantially diminished in value; or
- e. has been commingled with other property which cannot be divided without difficulty, the United States of America shall be entitled to forfeiture of substitute property pursuant to Title 21, United States Code, Section 853(p), as incorporated by Title 28, United States Code, Section 2461(c).
