

BASIC UNDERCOVER NARCOTICS TACTICS

This tuition-free forty-hour Multijurisdictional Counterdrug Task Force Training course is designed for law enforcement officers and will be beneficial for general criminal detectives, narcotics agents, patrol officers, and any other officers interested in proactive narcotic related policing. During this training agents will be provided information which will allow them to conduct narcotic investigations in a safe yet effective manner. Agents will learn the latest techniques being used by narcotic officers across the country to combat drug trafficking and the distribution of illegal narcotics. With today's view on policing, it is important to stay current on case law, search warrant execution, and consensual encounters which will all be discussed during this course. The instructors teach based on their experience as a narcotic officer. Upon completion of this course, agents will be better prepared to handle every aspect of narcotics investigations.

Instructor Joe Beliveau began his law enforcement career in June of 1990 with one of the largest law enforcement agencies in Illinois where he worked for 9 years as a patrol officer and drug interdiction officer in the St. Louis Metro East Area. In 1999, he was assigned to investigations where he has spent the last 16 years. Joe has held positions as an agent, supervisor, and director of a 20 man undercover narcotics unit, supervisor of a Meth Response Team, supervisor of a gun unit, and a supervisor of a multi-agency proactive street crimes unit in one of the most dangerous cities in the United States. Joe has been involved in thousands of undercover operations involving narcotics, firearms, car thefts, murder for hires, etc. He is also recognized as an expert by Illinois Courts as well as Federal Court of the Southern District of Illinois.

Instructor Kurt Eversman is a 28-year law enforcement officer specializing in Narcotics and Tactical Operations. Kurt has spent 13 years as a SWAT operator and held a command rank within a multi-jurisdictional Special Response Team for 7 years. He also has 17 years of working in the Narcotics Division. During his career he has worked thousands of drug investigations at both the state and federal level. He also was the Assistant Commander and prepared the Operational Plan for dignitary protection detail for the Speaker of the House in 2013. During his career he has conducted operational plans and participated in over 400 high-risk tactical operations. He has helped develop training in Undercover Operations, Surveillance, Emergency Officer Rescues, and Managing Confidential Informants.
