

The Tampa Bay Area Chiefs of Police Association will be hosting a free training opportunity for law enforcement supervisors/commanders. This training seminar – Changing Nature of Law Enforcement and the Impact of the Florida Police Chiefs Association Subcommittee on Accountability and Societal Change – will be held via WebEx on Wednesday, December 16th, 2020 (from 1130-1230 hours).

The Changing Nature of Law Enforcement and the Impact of the Florida Police Chiefs Association Subcommittee on Accountability and Societal Change seminar is geared toward supervisory and management staff; this seminar will provide an assessment, from each panelists' perspective, of the challenges, opportunities, and paths forward in the current law enforcement environment. Additionally, this seminar will provide an update on the work and goals of the FPCA Subcommittee and how agencies can balance these future demands with the betterment of our personnel and organizations in mind.

Panelists/Presenters:

Chief Brian Dugan, Tampa Police Department

Chief Daniel Slaughter, Clearwater Police Department

Chief Anthony Holloway, St. Petersburg Police Department

More Information/Registration:

Contact Major David Dalton, Clearwater Police Department
(727.562.4299 or David.Dalton@myclearwater.com).

Seating is limited.